CABINET NOD FOR MORE JOBS TO KANNADIGAS

Rules framed for new employment policy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka state cabinet on Friday approved the new Employment Policy 2022-25 to provide job reservation for local Kannadigas in industries.

Under the new policy, industries in expansion mode have to create additional jobs as specified for locals. The policy aims at generating more employment in Karnataka, said Law Minister J C Madhuswamy.

Speaking to reporters after a cabinet meeting, Minister Madhuswamy said the policy got the nod to increase job opportunities among the local people. With this, investors who want to expand their units or look at setting up new ones have to increase the number of jobs they provide to employ the locals.

He said guidelines have been framed, under which they have specifically mentioned additional jobs for every incremental investment in medium, large, mega, ultra-mega and super-mega industries.

Explaining further, Madhuswamy said if an industry classified as medium scale (minimum employment is 20) wants to invest Rs 10 crore for expansion, they have to create 10 more jobs for the locals. If investors intend to invest Rs 50 crore, 35 to 50 jobs should be created; and under the super-mega industry category, if they want to invest up to Rs 100 crore, they have to create 50 additional jobs.

All these additional jobs will be for local Kannadigas. He pointed out that the guidelines they framed specify how various units should provide employment for locals.

FORMER chief minister and veteran BJP leader B S Yediyurappa has hinted at his retirement from electoral politics by announcing that his younger son and the party's state vice president B Y Vijayendra will contest the 2023 assembly elections from Shikaripura constituency which the former has been representing since 1983 except in 1999.

Speaking to the media after offering 'Bagina' to Anjanapura dam in Shikaripura taluk on Friday, he said, "I request the people of Shikaripura to ensure the victory of Vijayendra by a huge margin, even bigger than what I had secured." He said his supporters are pressuring him to field Vijayendra from the old Mysuru region.

Reacting to Yediyurappa's statement, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai who is on a visit to Delhi, said, "Yediyurappa will neither retire nor is he tired. He is a relentless fighter." Asked about BSY's decision not to contest elections any more, Bommai said, "Yediyurappa would always be with the BJP. He has his own importance. Party top brass are aware of his importance."

Bommai said though he met him on Thursday, "this issue did not come up for discussion". P4

CBSE X, XII Board results out the same day

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

WITH scores of 99.68% and 98.83% respectively in the much awaited CBSE Class X and XII Board exam results, Trivandrum was the best performing region in the country in terms of pass percentage.

The next best were Bengaluru (99.22% and 98.16%) and Chennai (98.7% and 97.79%), results for which were announced on Friday. This was the first time the board announced both Class X and XII results on the same day. Girls once again outperformed boys by 1.41% and 3.29% respectively for classes X and XII, but that has been the trend over the years. While 94.4% candidates cleared the Class X exams, the corresponding figure for Class XII was 92.71%. The Class XII pass percentage dipped compared to last year's 99.37% mainly because exams weren't held last year due to Covid. The result was based on a special assessment scheme instead. This year, exams were conducted in two terms. Similarly, the Class X pass percentage last year was 99.04%.

In Class X, many students scored over 90% and 95%. As many as 64,908 candidates scored 95% and above. And 2,36,993 candidates notched up scores of 90% and above.

CBI lens on Delhi govt liquor policy

SHAHID FARIDI @ New Delhi

DELHI's Lieutenant Governor Vinai Kumar Saxena on Friday ordered a CBI probe into the AAP government's new excise policy in Delhi. This newspaper was the first to report that the city government's liquor policy was likely to be probed by the CBI. In his letter to the CBI, Saxena said the Delhi government executed "major decisions/actions in violation of the statutory provisions and the notified excise policy that had huge financial implications". The LG accused the Arvind Kejriwal-led regime of extending "undue financial favours to the liquor licensees much after the tenders had been awarded and thus caused huge losses to the exchequer."

The letter said CBI investigation has been ordered after a report by the Delhi chief secretary established prima facie violations of GNCTD Act 1991, Transaction of Business Rules 1993, Delhi Excise Act 2009 and Delhi Excise Rules 2010. Among the charges levelled in the chief secretary's report are relaxation of tender conditions to provide undue financial favours to some licensees, refund of earnest money deposit to a licensee, allowing windfall gains to some licensees by restricting the number of vends per ward, extending licence period without clearance from competent authority, etc.

Back home from jail, Zubair says, 'I will get back to my work'

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

FAMILY and friends celebrating his homecoming seemed to iron out the stress of the last four weeks that they had endured collectively. The co-founder of Alt News Mohammed Zubair returned home Friday morning to a warm welcome after the Supreme Court on July 20 granted him interim bail in all the six cases registered against him by the Uttar Pradesh (UP) police accusing him of hurting religious sentiments through his tweets.

Zubair was thankful that he was back home. "I was expecting to be in prison for a longer time given the manner and pace at which the FIRs were registered against me. I am very fortunate to get such overwhelming support from everybody, especially my lawyer Vrinda Grover, my colleague and co-founder of Alt News Pratik Sinha and his mother Nirjhari Sinha. Maybe, because my case was highlighted that it was pushed and I got early relief from the courts. I am thankful to the judiciary," said Zubair, while hugging his sons. He has three children, who just didn't want to lose sight of their father since his return.

Zubair (40) was arrested on June 27 by the special cell, Delhi police for a 2018 tweet that he had posted on the microblogging website. Narrating the sequence of events leading to his arrest, he said that on June 24 he received a mail from the special cell, Delhi police asking him to appear before them on June 27 in a 2020 case in which they had earlier given him a "clean chit," he said.

BBMP chief submits norms on illegal buildings to HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN view of the serious view taken by the Karnataka High Court on inaction of officials and engineers who fail to prevent illegal constructions and buildings violating sanctioned plan and bye-laws in the city, BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath issued guidelines fixing responsibility on officials and engineers to stop deviation of buildings from the sanctioned plan and avoid unauthorised constructions.

If officials and engineers fail to adhere to the guidelines, they will be punished under Section 321 (B) of the Karnataka Municipal Corporations Act and Section 252 of the BBMP Act, and kept under suspension, pending departmental enquiry, the Chief Commissioner warned in the guidelines dated July 21, 2022, placed before Justice R Nataraj.

Placing the undertaking on record, Justice Nataraj directed the Chief Commissioner to give publicity to the guidelines in Kannada and English newspapers. In one case on June 6, 2022, the court noted that none of the engineers concerned conduct inspections, as provided under bye-law 5.2 and 5.3. The sanctioned plan and licence are never displayed at the construction site, and no steps are taken to ensure compliance with the plan at the inception. This has emboldened property owners to violate building plans with impunity, the court observed.

The court noted that it is the owners who would be later held responsible for not complying with the sanctioned plan, and the engineer would go scot-free. To ensure compliance with bye-laws, it directed the Chief Commissioner to file an affidavit stating the action to be taken against errant officials and engineers.

The Commissioner also informed court that sanctioned plans have been made available online, and zonal and revenue offices of BBM.

THREE KINDS OF ILLEGAL BUILDINGS

- Deviation of sanctioned plan
- Extending/deviating structure after obtaining Occupancy Certificate
- Construction without plan sanction
- Order to officials and engineers, failing which they will be suspended
- Mark building plinth line within 30 days of plan sanction
- Upload pictures on web with GPS coordination
- Verify whether owner has adhered to plinth line, time to time
- If there is violation, take action and remove deviated portion

BBMP workers clear an encroachment at Gandhi Bazaar on Friday

Two properties worth ₹330 crore reclaimed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING directions from the Chief Commissioner and a decision at the Zonal Commissioners' meeting to reclaim and secure BBMP properties and assets, BBMP officials went on an encroachment clearance drive and reclaimed two prime properties worth Rs 330 crore, on Friday.

According to West Zone Joint Commissioner SM Srinivasa, 3.22 acres identified as Peer Boundary at Chamarajpet, worth Rs 300 crore, was reclaimed. "The High Court ruled in the Palike's favour in 2013. The opposite parties were given time to prove ownership and provide documents. Since they failed, the Palike has taken over the property and fenced it," he said.

In another area at Gandhi Bazaar in Bengaluru South, 9,100 sqft of landm including a constructed building, was taken over by the Palike. According to Executive Engineer Yerappa Reddy, the High Court and Supreme Court had ruled in favour of the Palike a few years ago.

On Friday, the Palike went ahead and razed illegal sheds and a complex, and reclaimed the property. "With BBMP going ahead with multi-level car parking close to the market, the traders will be given transit place and will be accommodated in the reclaimed property. The total reclaimed area is worth Rs 30 crore," said the engineer.

PM ROAD MESS-UP: 2 ENGINEERS SUSPENDED

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AFTER facing flak for shoddy road works in Kengeri and Jnanabharathi areas, carried out before Prime Minister's visit to Bengaluru last month, the BBMP has suspended two engineers -- Assistant Executive Engineer HJ Ravi and Assistant Engineer I K Vishwas. Ravi is due for retirement in August.

Officials said a probe was taken up following the direction of the Chief Minister as the issue had put his administration on the defensive after photos and videos of caved-in roads and peeling of tar went viral.

Last month, the BBMP Road Infrastructure Department, going by media reports, served notice to Executive Engineer M T Balaji, Ravi and Vishwas seeking their explanation. Besides, a penalty of Rs 3 lakh was imposed on contractor Ramesh. The probe reportedly revealed that the bitumen, which was supposed to be 40 mm, was only 30 mm.

S Sudarshan, general secretary, KHB Nagarikara Kshemabivridhi Sangha, who had brought the shoddy work to public notice, said the suspended officials are scapegoats and alleged that the contractor, who executed the project, has fled abroad fearing arrest.

"The project was sanctioned by Road Infrastructure Chief Engineer B S Prahalad and the bill book was maintained by Executive Engineer M T Balaji. To save these two people, the most vulnerable ones have been targeted," he alleged.

BDA to rope in law firm to handle court cases

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

BANGALORE Development Authority (BDA) has, for the first time, decided to reach out for legal help from outside to manage the overwhelming number of cases filed against it, said a reliable BDA source. At present, the Authority has over 6,000 cases pending against it at various courts.

"Due to the sheer number of cases filed against us, it is becoming impossible to keep track of each one and follow up. This often leads to BDA officials, including the Commissioner, missing out on appearances that later amount to contempt of court. Hence, we have decided to invite a law firm to set up shop inside our premises." This is the first time in BDA's history that they have decided upon such a plan, he added.

Tenders have already been called, the source said. "The BDA has an in-house legal team with a law office too. We recently decided to retain just 40 of the 180 panel officers. Despite such a huge number, we ended up missing mandatory duties the court had ordered us to carry out. Hence, we downsized their number," he said.

BDA Commissioner Rajesh Gowda confirmed the development. "We have nearly 3,500 petitions and writ appeals against us in the High Court, another 2,500 in civil courts and around 250 cases in the Supreme Court. So we've decided to hire a legal team to help us."

The team will be based inside the BDA premises. There would be considerable work for the team, including liaisoning between specific advocates and BDA officials, ensuring compliance with court orders and adhering to advisories.

The Apex Court had, on a few occasions last year, hit out at the BDA for not paying attention to the orders issued by it.

Meanwhile, the Palike seized 810 kg of plastic from two industries in Peenya Industrial Area and imposed a penalty of Rs 5,000 each on Friday. ENS

23RD July: A little while ago I mentioned how life may have come from comets. Actually, before then, all life originally came from the stars themselves. ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)

Although some people are inventive, others are belligerent. You'd be advised to watch your wallet and think very long and hard before making any rash commitments, especially financial ones. You don't want to say 'yes' now, only to end up letting someone down.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)

Venus' relationship with passionate Pluto is certainly stormy. You would be well advised to adopt a posture of considerable caution unless, that is, you are prepared for all the consequences. Only make decisive moves if you're ready for anything!

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)

Secret and hidden resentment is your enemy. You see, long-forgotten frustrations may build up to the point where you blow up at completely the wrong person. Channel your righteous anger into selfless purposes, and always try to give partners and rivals the benefit of the doubt.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)

The strongest planetary alignment in your chart suggests a combination of creative passion and social ambition. Woe betide the person who stands in your way! They are likely to find that you are much tougher than they thought. A word of advice: steer clear of financial risks.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)

Partners and loved ones still hold the key to your happiness. Also, recent unexpected developments at work don't seem to have upset your confidence. It seems that it's undercurrents in your personal life which pose the greatest threat, and complacency your major enemy.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

News from overseas, which should arrive over the next few days, may cause you to catch your breath. Travelling and other adventurous Virgos may expect excitement but should take absolutely nothing for granted. In addition to which, you'll put in any effort to make sure that partners are happy and healthy.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Any financial commitment may be about to grow out of all proportion to the original aim. Only by savage pruning at the roots will you guarantee that potentially escalating costs can be cut. You'll probably be taking some radical, even shocking, decisions next week.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

No matter how trying or upsetting the situation becomes, you must take very great care on the home front and consider the matter very carefully before sounding off. It is impossible to predict the outcome your actions may have on someone else's feelings or behaviour.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

Your chart is showing spectacular developments. With some wonderful planetary aspects now in operation, you are primed to achieve a great deal indeed. If possible, keep your end up by demonstrating to all and sundry that you are no stranger to hard work and high principles.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

Feelings are running high and you'll be in a mood to take risks. I think you're in a strong position, but beware of false confidence, because there'll be times when you pick up the wrong end of the stick. Harmless adventures may be best. Keep an eye on your wallet.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

You have a tendency to imagine that you can do without the support and co-operation of close friends and loved ones. Right now you're liable to swing between never wanting to have anything to do with somebody ever again and making a total life-long commitment.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)

There's no reason why you should take all the responsibility, and nobody can complain if you decide to leave awkward issues to others. If you're feeling introverted or withdrawn, it's probably because you need some space and time on your own to think things over.

INDIA'S FIRST BRAIN HEALTH CLINIC LAUNCHED

Two more centres will come up in Chikkaballapura & Kolar districts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

On World Brain Day, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar inaugurated India's first brain health clinic under the Karnataka Brain Health Initiative (Ka-BHI) at Jayanagar General Hospital, on Friday.

Sudhakar said two more such centres will come up in Chikkaballapura and Kolar districts, in association with Nimhans. Stressing that the government has given importance to issues related to mental health, he said treatment will be available at all 243 Namma Clinics.

He said the brain health clinic is his dream come true. "When a person who tested positive for Covid-19 ended his life in Victoria Hospital two years ago, we realised that rather than the disease, people suffer from fear of it. So the health department took up the initiative to counsel Covid patients, and so far have counselled over 25 lakh people. The helpline started during SSLC results counselled thousands of students," he said.

The theme for this year is 'Brain Health for All' and to implement it, Ka-BHI was launched in January as a joint endeavour of Nimhans and the Department of Health and Family Welfare, to increase awareness and also prevent and improve treatment for neurological diseases.

Uthappa shares his ordeal

Cricketer and Karnataka Brain Health Initiative (Ka-Bhi) ambassador Robin Uthappa, who took part in the event, shared his struggle with mental health as a youngster. He spoke about the issue being extremely personal to him, and that he would do everything in his capacity to spread awareness about it. A morning cricket session 'Reflections with Robin' was also organised where he played with neurologists and doctors.

More docs to be trained to handle mental health

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

HEALTH Minister Dr K Sudhakar said that lack of awareness, social stigma, poverty and shortage of facilities to address mental facilities have led to a spike in cases of mental/brain health issues like stroke, epilepsy, dementia, brain tumours and Parkinson's disease. Hence, more doctors will be trained to handle mental health issues under the Karnataka Brain Health Initiative (Ka-BHI) to ease the burden on Nimhans.

Already, over 100 doctors are being trained under the initiative on a pilot basis in Bengaluru, Kolar and Chikkaballapur districts, he said.

Noting that the Union government is replicating the innovative initiative of the state government, E-Manas, as 'Tele Manas', he said E-Manas is an online platform to increase access to mental healthcare. "So far, 153 mental health establishments and 259 mental health professionals have registered," he said, adding that Nimhans will soon get a trauma centre, and the Union health minister has promised to approve the centre shortly.

"Mental health is as important as physical health. Being physically active, besides having nutritious food and sleeping for six to eight hours helps all organs, to function well. Consulting psychologists, psychiatrists and neurologists in the beginning stage of mental health issues and early diagnosis will help in complete cure, possible due to advanced research and technological evolution," he said. The minister said many people who are affected by it must consult doctors if they have any brain-related issues.

Monkeypox: Incubation period 5-13 days

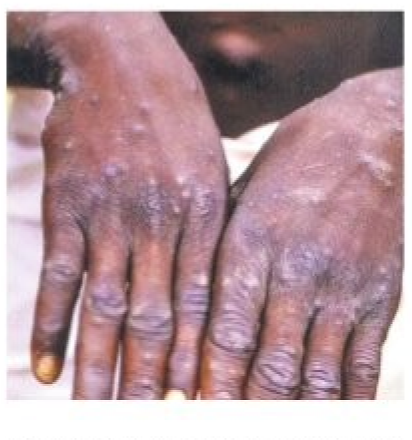
SHILPA P @Bengaluru

WHILE detection of the third monkeypox case in Kerala has prompted the state health department to beef up vigil with surveillance guidelines, experts have warned that the incubation period from the time of exposure to a known case of monkeypox to clinical illness, is usually 5-13 days.

Experts said that transmission does not occur merely due to contact with an infected person, but with prolonged close face-to-face contact with an infected person, usually within a 6-ft radius for over three hours, in the absence of personal protection equipment.

Dr Pramod V Satya, consultant-internal medicine, Manipal Hospital, Millers Road, said transmission of monkeypox also occurs through close contact with skin or genital lesions, large respiratory droplets, or via contact with contaminated materials used by infected persons. In May 2022, an outbreak in a few countries appeared to be associated with close contact associated with sexual activity, he added.

Dr Pruthu Narendra Dhekane, consultant-infectious diseases, Fortis Hospital, Bannerghatta Road, said, "Although monkeypox symptoms are similar to smallpox, most cases are mild and self-limiting, and last for 2-4 weeks. A few precautions can be taken for quick recovery include letting the rash dry on its own or protecting the area with a moist dressing, if required. They should also avoid touching any sores around the mouth or eyes."



On possible vaccination, Dr Khazi Javeed Irfan, consultant-internal medicine, Manipal Hospital, Yeshwanthpur, said there is no vaccination so far, but research is going on.

Experts have cautioned that those present in an area where monkeypox has been reported, especially those with a history of contact with a monkeypox case, or exposed to a suspect in the previous 21 days, to be alert and quarantine themselves. They also urged them to consult the nearest healthcare facility if they develop one or more symptoms suggestive of monkeypox, like fever, chills and sweats, lymph node swelling, headache, muscle pain, backache, exhaustion, loss of energy, sore throat and cough, skin rashes or blisters.

With Vijayendra shifting base to Shikaripura, Siddu may eye Varuna

With CLP leader announcing it as his last election, he may garner emotional votes

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

WITH former CM BS Yediyurappa on Friday announcing that his son BY Vijayendra will contest the 2023 Assembly elections from the Shikaripura seat, CLP leader Siddaramaiah is likely to run from the Varuna seat in Mysuru.

BSY's decision to bid adieu to electoral politics comes at a time when Siddaramaiah is searching for a 'safe' Assembly seat, as he had reportedly declared earlier he will not contest from the Chamundeshwari seat.

As he wanted to shift from the Badami seat, which he won in 2018 by a margin of 2,000 votes, his supporters were insisting he contest from neighbouring constituencies. There were talks of him also considering the Kolar Assembly seat as incumbent MLA K Srinivasa Gowda, expelled from JDS, had offered to vacate the seat for him.

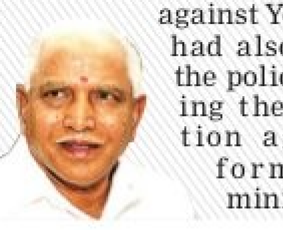
Siddaramaiah, who has stated the 2023 Assembly polls will be his last, nurses a desire to return to Mysuru. Since his son Dr Yathindra is the incumbent MLA in Varuna constituency, there will be no problem, sources said. In the 2018 Assembly polls, Vijayendra, who wanted to contest from Varuna, missed the BJP ticket helping Dr Yathindra win, political observers said.

SC RELIEF FOR BSY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

IN a breather to former Karnataka chief minister BS Yediyurappa, the Supreme Court on Friday stayed a Karnataka HC order refusing to quash corruption charges against him in an illegal land denotification case of 2006-07.

A bench of CJI NV Ramana, Justices Krishna Murari and Hima Kohli also issued a notice to the Karnataka government on a special leave petition filed by the senior BJP leader. The FIR was filed by the Karnataka Lokayukta police on December 21, 2015 on a private complaint filed by Vasudeva Reddy under the Prevention of Corruption Act. The counsel appearing for Yeddiurappa, senior advocate KV Vishwanathan, submitted that the high court had quashed the same FIR which was also registered against Raghunath Vishwanath Deshpande on October 9, 2015. He submitted that the investigation against the former chief minister in the same FIR is illegal and amounted to abuse of process of court. The single bench of Justice John Michael Cunha of the high court, while refusing to quash the FIR against Yediyurappa, had also pulled up the police for delaying the investigation against the former chief minister.



Yediyurappa will guide BJP: CM

BOMMAI said he will meet BSY and talk to him. Asked if Yediyurappa will retire, he said in the coming polls, BJP will have Yediyurappa's guidance.

He said Yediyurappa is like a father figure and the central leaders know it.

Vijayendra said his father will not be active in electoral politics but will continue to strengthen the party. "Retirement is a word which does not exist in my father's dictionary. When he resigned from CM's post, he had pledged to work to bring BJP back to power once again for which he will campaign," he said.

When Yediyurappa broke away from the party in 2013, BJP managed to win only 40 seats. Now with just nine months left for 2023 polls, Yediyurappa's announcement of quitting electoral politics has surprised many. Sources said people are taken aback as Yediyurappa who tried to get his son Vijayendra into the cabinet failed to make him even an MLC.

Shikaripura has been his stronghold since 1983 from where he won for the first time by defeating Congress candidate K Yankannappa. He went on to retain the seat till Congress candidate Mahalingappa defeated him in 1999. As he contested Lok Sabha polls in 2014, he vacated the seat for his elder son Raghavendra who won the bypoll. BSY again won in 2018.

No rift among Cong leaders over CM post: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hubballi/Belagavi

AMID several Congress leaders staking claim to the CM's post, KPCC chief DK Shivakumar said in Hubballi on Friday that whoever has the blessings of party chief Sonia Gandhi will become the CM. Denying any differences among top party leaders for the post, he said it is a media creation.

Defending senior Congress leader Ramesh Kumar over his remark on Congressmen making enough to last three to four generations, he said, "The media is misinterpreting what he said. I stand by Ramesh Kumar and it is in the interest of the party. What he actually said refers to the wealth created by generations of Nehru-Gandhi families for the nation, even sacrificing their lives. The present state of the nation is due to their rich contribution."

In Belagavi, former minister MB Patil said he too is in the race for CM's post. "Why should I enter the race with the help of two leaders (Shivakumar and Siddaramaiah)? I can enter it directly,'' he added.

However, elected MLAs and the Congress brass will take the final decision on the CM's post, if Congress gets the mandate. "If I wish to become a CM, it is not possible in Congress,'' he added.

On the upcoming 75th birthday celebrations of Siddaramaiah, he said, "Siddaramaiah who came from a rural background has risen to great heights as a leader."

Hitting out at the state government, he said a group of civil contractors had written to the PM about a 40 per cent commission demanded by ministers. "I want to know why ED, IT and CBI raids are not being conducted on ministers,'' he added.

MANGALURU: D Veerendra Heggade, Dharmasthala Dharmadhikari, took oath in Kannada as anominated member of the Rajya Sabha during the ongoing monsoon session in New Delhi on Thursday in the presence of V-P M Venkaiah Naidu. State BJP president Nalin Kumar Kateel, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi and Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal welcomed Heggade to Parliament and after the swearing-in, Heggade met PM Narendra Modi. PM Modi recalled the contribution of Heggade for the welfare of the people. Modi lauded Heggade for his community service and also in education, culture and health sector. PM may attend rally to boost CM's image

Bengaluru: PM Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah are likely to take part in a rally to mark CM Basavaraj Bommai's one year in office at Doddaballapur on July 28. The event has its own significance. Bommai is not only bettering the record of his father SR Bommai, who was CM for eight months in 1988-89, but also the other BJP CMs Sadananda Gowda and Jagadish Shettar, who held the post for 342 days and 305 days respectively. The party high command will project Bommai as the most successful CM, after BS Yediyurappa. The event will mark the completion of three years of BJP government, and it is to be seen if there is a green signal for cabinet expansion. Bommai, who is scheduled to be in New Delhi from July 24-25 is also likely to hold discussions with Modi and Shah. In all probability, Modi could give his nod to attend the rally which aimed at showcasing Bommai government's achievements - DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI

Eshwarappa return to cabinet not anytime soon

Bengaluru/Mysuru: The BJP high command is having second thoughts about reinduction of former RDPR minister KS Eshwarappa into the cabinet although he has been given a clean chit by the Udupi police in Santosh Patil case. In the run up to 2023 assembly polls taking Eshwarappa back into the cabinet may invite trouble while attacking the opposition. Instead of taking KSE back into the cabinet, the high command plans to induct young leaders like Raju Gowda and P Rajiv who would strike a balance in their statements if there is a cabinet expansion, a BJP leader said. Moreover, the high command wants to fix the average age of the leaders at 50, he added. Meanwhile, Eshwarappa visited a temple with his wife Jayalakshmi to offer prayers to Goddess Chamundeshwari. He told media persons, "The day I was accused, I had denied it and said I do not have even one per cent role in the incident. Now it has been proved in the B-report. When I was in Mysuru, I came to know about the incident. I spoke to several state and national leaders regarding the issue. Even though party leaders told me not to resign, I did," he said. About rejoining cabinet, he said whatever decision the party high command takes, he will welcome it.

Anti-conversion law: HC notice to state govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

ACTING on a public interest litigation, challenging the constitutional validity of the Karnataka Protection of Right to Freedom of Religion Ordinance, 2022 on the ground that it demonstrates intolerance towards the religious choices of people which is an attack on the secular fabric that holds Indian democracy together, the Karnataka High Court on Friday issued a notice to the state government and granted it four weeks to file objections.

Hearing the petition by New Delhi-based Evangelical Fellowship of India and All-Karnataka United Christian Forum for Human Rights, questioning the anti-conversion law promulgated by the state government, a division bench of Acting Chief Justice Alok Aradhe and Justice JM Khazi issued notices to the home department secretary and law department principal secretary.

The petitioners contend the ordinance is void since it is repugnant to the central legislation -- the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 and Special Marriages Act, 1954 – and legislation that provides for the cancellation of financial grants or aid to various organisations, and any violation is a cognisable and non-bailable offence.

"The provisions of the ordinance impinge upon an individual's right to freedom of choice, right to life and liberty as well as the right to freedom of religion and allows an unnecessary intrusion in the lives of people who have their autonomy compromised by the state. When the individuals have to approach the District Magistrate to validate their conversion for the purpose of marriage or otherwise, it violates their right to privacy and disempowers individuals," it claimed.

The petitioners stated that the ordinance violates Art 21 as it empowers the state to suppress personal liberty. It also mandates a series of complicated procedures before and after conversion. It states the government has to be taken into confidence to "ensure" that the act is an informed and voluntary decision by the individual, they argued.

The ordinance is definitely not an appropriate solution. The right to convert is manifested in Article 25. However, the ordinance impinges upon this right and also on the rights of minorities under Article 30, 19(1)(g) and 19(1)(a), they alleged.

K'taka Industrial Board to monitor job quota

THE increase in the number of jobs is proportionate to the categorisation of the industry.

Job reservation is applicable for all A, B, C and D job categories wherein locals should be employed.

In order to monitor it, officials from the Industries and Commerce Department along with Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) will maintain periodic checks.

"This was widely debated during the cabinet meeting and approved for all the categories, otherwise people from outside will get the top layer," he added.

In his Budget 2022-23, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai — who also holds the Finance portfolio — had announced the policy to create employment opportunities wherein they were to provide additional incentives to industries creating more employment for local people.

Bommai had stated that preference would be given to attract investors in labour intensive sectors like textiles, toy manufacturing, fast-moving consumer goods (FMCGs), leather products, food processing and jewellery.

Kasturirangan report: K'taka again says won't implement it

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state cabinet on Friday strongly opposed a central government notification on declaring parts of Western Ghats as eco-sensitive zones based on the Kasturirangan report. The state is now planning to write to the Union government.

After the cabinet meeting, Law Minister JC Madhu Swamy said the Centre had sought the opinion of the state. "We had said there is no compromise on the issue and it will be an injustice to the people of the region if the report is implemented. We have already stated our position twice and this is the third time that we are doing it through cabinet approval," he said.

The state government cannot accept the report and shift people from eco-sensitive zones in the Western Ghats. "We will write to the Centre and after discussion, will also present a memorandum," he said.

In the coming days, a delegation from the state, headed by CM Basavaraj Bommai, will go to Delhi to convey the state's decision. "We wanted to make our stand clear before that. Else, there is a chance of authorities from the Centre issuing a notification," he added.

The state has been opposing implementation of the report since the beginning.

Home Minister Araga Jnanendra had earlier said objections raised by the state were not considered and the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change issued the fifth notification on July 6 that was similar to four other communiques issued earlier. If the report is implemented, it will adversely impact people in 1,553 villages. The report has been prepared without a proper survey, and over 1,000 objections raised by the state have not been considered, he added.

The throng raised slogans against the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi. On reaching Rani Chennamma Circle, they staged a protest.

Addressing the protesters, Shivakumar alleged that the Centre was misusing the probe agencies to target the opposition party leaders, adding that their leaders Sonia Gandhi and Rahul have fallen prey to the nefarious designs of the Modi government.

He said that Sonia Gandhi and her family have made immense sacrificed for the country. "Torturing her and Rahul in a false case is inhuman. Show FIR copy against Sonia, dares UT Khader

UDUPI: Deputy Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Assembly U T Khader challenged the BJP to show the FIR copy in connection with the ED questioning Congress chief Sonia Gandhi. Following the protest, he told media persons in Brahmavara there was not even a rupee of transaction in the National Herald case. "ED officials should show the FIR copy in the money laundering case so people can see it". "Even after grilling Rahul Gandhi for more than 50 hours, ED officials found no substance," he said. Calling ED probe a political vendetta, he said that Centre is misusing the ED to muffle the opposition. "In eight years, BJP has executed its anti-people policies. Congress has launched protest against them. So the BJP has resorted to threatening party leaders by misusing ED," he said.

Kharif sowing begins, fertiliser shortage hits Koppal farmers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Koppal

THERE appears to be an acute shortage of fertiliser, especially urea, in Koppal district.

Joint Director of Agriculture (JDA) Sadashiva attributed the shortage to demand exceeding supply due to early kharif sowing, especially paddy, in the command area of Tungabhadra Project, following heavy rainfall in the catchment area of Tungabhadra reservoir in June-July.

Though the agriculture department estimated a demand of 70,494 tonnes of fertilisers in the district between April and July, supply stood at 56,722 tonnes, and hence the shortage. Sadashiva attributed the shortage to early paddy sowing. He, however, told TNIE on Friday that fertilisers meant for August and September are being advanced for supply by this month-end to tackle the issue.

The district has a total cultivable area of 3.08 lakh hectares, including 39,558 hectares of Tungabhadra command area. Sowing operations have already been carried out in 2.94 lakh hectares, hence there is high demand for fertilisers, agriculture department officials said.

Meanwhile, long queues of farmers are common at the 20 Raita Sampark Kendras (RSKs) in the district. There have been instances of altercations between RSK officials and farmers. Shortage has led to private fertiliser suppliers exploiting farmers by refusing to display price boards and furnishing bills for purchase, said farmers from Karatagi and Tavaragera towns in the district.

There have also been complaints of a fake fertiliser racket in the district. Six cases of substandard fertilisers have come to light during the kharif season. While an FIR has been filed in one case, measures are being taken to file FIRs in the remaining five, an official told TNIE.

Thiruvananthapuram topped region-wise category in the country

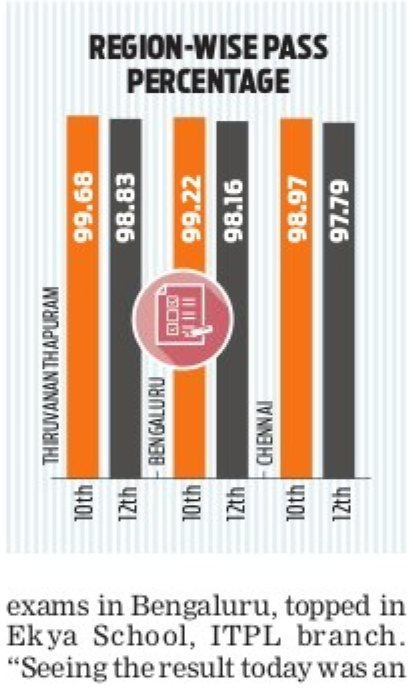
Students of Venkat International Public School in Bengaluru check their Class 12 results, which were announced on Friday | EXPRESS

BENGALURU has registered the second highest pass percentage in the region-wise category in the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) Class 10 and Class 12 examination results which were announced on Friday. Bengaluru secured the second place in the country for both Class 10 and 12. Thiruvananthapuram topped the region-wise category in the country.

CBSE regions are divided into 16 parts with Bengaluru region covering entire Karnataka. According to statistics released by the CBSE, Bengaluru region recorded 98.16% pass percentage in the Class 12 board examinations, only 0.67% behind Thiruvananthapuram region, and and 99.22% pass percentage in the Class 10 board examinations, only 0.46% behind Thiruvananthapuram.

Controller of Examinations, Dr Sanyam Bhardwaj said that the board will not be releasing merit lists, or first, second or third rankings secured by students, nation or state-wide. "As per the earlier decision of the board, no merit list will be released to avoid unhealthy competition among students," he said in a statement.



However, Bengaluru students have faired exceptionally well in the examinations. Diya Baid, who scored 98.2% in Class 12 exams in Bengaluru, topped in Ekya School, ITPL branch. "Seeing the result today was an amazing feeling. I'm very grateful to my teachers, school, family and friends for all the support throughout the year," she said. Another student, Govind Kishore topped in his school, Kendriya Vidyalaya Hebbal, with 97.6% in Class 12 board examinations.

Prasidh Pradeep, who scored 93% and topped at Ekya School, BTM Layout, attributes his success to consistency and feedback from teachers. "I believe consistency is the key to scoring well. Planning a schedule with a few hours of study dedicated everyday ensures that all concepts have been covered and there isn't much of a last-minute struggle," he said.

5G trial on MG Rd Metro Stn a success

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru:

5G trial run being conducted at MG Road Metro Station | EXPRESS

BANGALORE Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) on Friday successfully conducted trial runs for the Fifth Generation mobile network (5G) at MG Road Metro Station. It is the first station in the country to conduct trials for the Telecom Authority of India (TRAI). An official release said the trial revealed the speed to be 50 times faster than 4G. "Preliminary bandwidth trial has 1.45 Gbps download, and 65 Mbps upload speeds," the release said.

BMRCL Managing Director Anjum Parwez told TNIE, "We had been working on it with TRAI for nearly three months, with equipment installation done by Reliance Jio. By 11am Friday, we completed the trial successfully. It is a matter of pride that the city is facilitating TRAI in its move to bring in 5G in the country."

The system, comprising Outdoor Small Cells and Distributed Antenna System, was installed by Reliance Jio from July 5, and testing was carried out on July 22, the release said. "The ODSC radiated signal will cover a 200-metre radius," it said.

Parwez said that unlike the 4G model which required huge towers, 5G required small structures but more numbers. "We can instal them at depots, stations and the viaduct too. It will be a revenue source for BMRCL as we will charge the network provider for using our space while they would be able to spread their reach among more customers," he said. Commuters on the entire Metro network could benefit when it is installed across the network, the MD said.

The ongoing trial at MG Road will go on for some time, he added.

One more branch of Orchids school shut

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

YET another FIR has been registered against a branch of Orchids International School, this time on Haralur Road.

According to Bengaluru South Block Education Officer (BEO) Ramamurthy DR, the school had started operating after applying for permission from the education department on the assumption that it would be accepted. "The school had admitted around 70 students and started conducting online classes from June 15. The education department had not given the school the permission to run. But based on the assumption that they would be given permission, they began admissions and classes from this academic year itself," Ramamurthy told TNIE.

The BEO investigated the school last Friday and it was closed immediately. Based on instructions from the Deputy Director of Public Instruction (DDPI), the BEO registered a complaint against the school's branch president, principal and secretary. The Bellandur police registered the FIR based on the complaint. The students were sent to other branches of the school that are properly registered, while four parents got their fees refunded, the BEO said.

Previously, the Magadi Road branch of Orchids International School had also been shut down under to similar circumstances. Both schools had applied for permission from the education department and, based on the assumption of obtaining permission, they had begun admissions. "We had conducted the investigation based on a public inquiry on whether the school had permission due to the previous case of the Magadi road branch shutting down," the BEO told TNIE.

The two branches are part of the four that were inaugurated by the school. The other two are in Kadugodi and Rajajinagar. Asked whether the other two branches will also be investigated, Public Instruction Commissioner R Vishal told TNIE that a circular was issued recently to deal with any schools operating without permission.

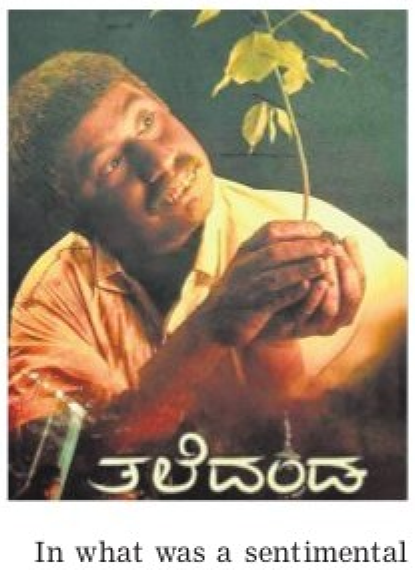
IT is interesting that Suriya shares the honours with Ajay Devgn, who won his third National Award for his titular role in Tanhaji: The Unsung Warrior that saw him exude the right mix of patriotism and rebellion in another inspiring saga.

The South domination continued in the acting categories, with actor Aparna Balamurali, who played the enterprising and feisty Bommi in Soorarai Pottru, declared the Best Actress. Adding to the mix are also two of the finest performances of 2020 — Lakshmipriyaa Chandramouli and Biju Menon —which won the Best Supporting Actress and Best Supporting Actor awards for Sivaranjiniyum... and Ayyappanum Koshiyum, respectively.



In what was a sentimental moment, director Sachy, who passed away in 2021, won the Best Director award for his work in Ayyappanum, which bagged one more award for Nanjiyamma in the Best Female Playback singer category. In a decent haul for Malayalam cinema, the inventive action sequences in Ayyappanum, won its stunt choreographers — Rajasekhar, Mafia Sasi and Supreme Sundar — the National Award. The lived-in locales and the contrasting lushness and aridness in Kappela's landscape won Anees Nadodi the National Award for Best Production Design. It was also a good year for Marathi films.

S Thaman, another first-timer, bagged the award for Best Music (Songs) for the foot-tapping soundtrack from Ala Vaikunthapurramulo. Another Telugu film to be awarded richly was the dance film, Natyam, which won the Best Choreographer (Sandhya Raju) and Best Make-Up Artist (TV Rambabu) awards.

In another sentimental moment, the late Sanchari Vijay-starrer Taledanda, which spoke about a person with mental health issues fighting to save his forest, won the Best Film on Environment. Another Kannada film to be bestowed with a top honour was Dollu, which won Jobin Jayan a National award for Best Audiography (Location Sound recordist-sync sound). In the final award of the Sound category, Vishnu Govind and Sree Sankar won the Best recordist of final mixed track for Malik.

The 68th National Film Awards proved to be a rather subdued year for Bollywood as only Tanhaji, Saina and Toolsidas Junior made the cut. Apart from Ajay Devgn, Tanhaji won the Best Costume (Nachiket Barve and Mahesh Sharle) award, and Parineeti Chopra-fronted sports drama Saina won the Best lyricist award for Manoj Mutashir. It was a good haul by the lesser-known Toolsidas Junior, a heartwarming tale of a young billiards player played by Varun Buddhadev, who won a Special Jury Award. The sports drama also won the Best Hindi film nod. The sole win from Bengali cinema was in the Best Cinematography category, which saw Supratim Bhol bag the award for his stellar work in Avijatrik.

This year saw the final list coinciding with popular choices. Most of the winners were first-timers, and were films that skipped the theatrical route to become direct-to-OTT releases. 2020 was an experimental year on many fronts, and by the time we reached 2021, many cinema industries figured how to coexist with the global pandemic. We have seen where films have gone; it will be intriguing to see where the National Awards go from here.

Toll booth crash: Report states driver not drunk

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Udupi

EVEN as Byndoor police arrested the ambulance driver Roshan in connection with a horrific road accident where the ambulance driven by him crashed a toll booth in Shiroor on Wednesday resulting to four deaths, police received the preliminary medical report on Friday. The medical report based on the blood sample test stated there was no alcohol content found in Roshan's blood. However, the police have not concluded if he was drunk, based on this report.

Police sources said, "As the FSL report will be the detailed one after thorough analysis of the sample, they are awaiting for it now. It may take seven to 10 days for it to arrive." After the video of the incident went viral, there were talks on that the driver might have been drunk. Roshan has been booked under sections 279 (Punishment for rash driving) and 304 (A) (Punishment for causing death by negligence) of IPC.

Police treated me well, says Zubair

"I went to Delhi and appeared before the police with Pratik and my lawyer. They showed me another 41A notice related to a 2018 tweet. They arrested me on the same day," Zubair said. "There is so much misinformation out there. I was told that during my incarceration a section of the media had reported that I had received Rs 48 lakh in my personal account whereas it was Alt News that had collected the amount through donation over a period of four months," he said.

He spoke about his experience in Tihar Central prison, where he was lodged in a special cell for around 20 days and his travel with UP police to Lakhimpur Kheri, Sitapur and Hathras for his cases.

Zubair confessed that he did not face any sort of high-handedness either by the Delhi or UP police. "I was not tortured. In fact, they looked after me well. I did go through a lot of mental agony during the travel and interrogation. When the UP police formed the special investigation team (SIT), I felt that I would be in prison for a long time," said Zubair.

Despite the ordeal that he and his family have gone through, he remains committed to going back to his work once he gets a new phone. "Thanks to what happened in the last one month, my family has become news and tech-savvy. They earlier used to scold me for getting into trouble because of my work. Today, they are proud of it," he laughed.

MURMU AS PREZ MAY YIELD RICH POLL DIVIDEND

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's decision to pick a candidate from the last row to be the country's first citizen serves two purposes. It empowers and fires the aspirations of the most marginalised sections. It can also fetch rich electoral rewards for the ruling NDA. As a tribal and a woman, the new Indian president, Droupadi Murmu, represents two of the most neglected sections of Indian society.

The socio-economic plight of women and tribals cannot be overstated even as we enter the Amrit Kal of India's independence. Tribals' age-old existential struggle for their rights over jal, jangal, jameen continues, and they still belong to the group that independent India's development schemes have least benefited. Women, too, need the government's attention as gender equality is one of the critical imperatives for achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) adopted by world leaders in 2015. President Murmu's ascension to the Rashtrapati Bhawan has brought the focus back on these issues.

The symbolism of her selection is not lost, and discussions on how her presence on Raisina Hill would affect the sections she represents have already begun. Apart from bringing the plight of tribals and women centre stage, electoral considerations may have played a role in the selection. The criticality of the tribal vote could not have been more apparent than in how Murmu's nomination forced Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren to break ranks with the opposition to vote for her. Soren runs a coalition government with the Congress but had to vote for Murmu as tribals constitute over a quarter of all voters in the state. Elections are also due in nine states next year before the Lok Sabha elections in 2024. Tribals would play a prominent role in these elections. Aam Aadmi Party of Arvind Kejriwal has made concerted efforts to win over the tribals of Gujarat. He has tied up with the Bhartiya Tribal Party of the state's prominent tribal leader, Chhotubhai Vasava. Tribals constitute nearly 15% of Gujarat's population. With Murmu's elevation, the BJP can expect to retain its support among the tribals.

TIGHTEN FISCAL BELT AND LOWER DEBT

In a welcome relief, the central government's FY22 debt settled at 56.29% of GDP against the projected 59.9%. A higher-than-projected national output led to the reduction, which was also visible in the FY22 fiscal deficit that printed at 6.7% of GDP compared to the projected 6.9%. Led by the pandemic-induced expenditure, the general government (centre and states) debt-to-GDP shot up to an alarming 90% in FY21. It fell to 85.2% in FY22 alright, but an unusual increase in tax collections caused the reduction and not because a part of the previous debt was retired. The ratio will likely remain high in the current fiscal, which could spook rating agencies, who remain ever-ready to junk India's sovereign rating. This is why an expert committee on fiscal management recommended the ratio be brought to acceptable levels soon, while the 15th Finance Commission suggested lowering it to 85.7% of GDP in FY26.

But the RBI's latest Financial Stability Report flagged the issue of the rising consolidated debt-to-GDP ratio. They warned that it could remain elevated, partly due to high government borrowings. In fact, the central bank had earlier projected that after moderating to 85.2% in FY22, the general government debt ratio could likely worsen to 89.1% by FY27 if economic growth stagnates at 5% from FY24 onwards.

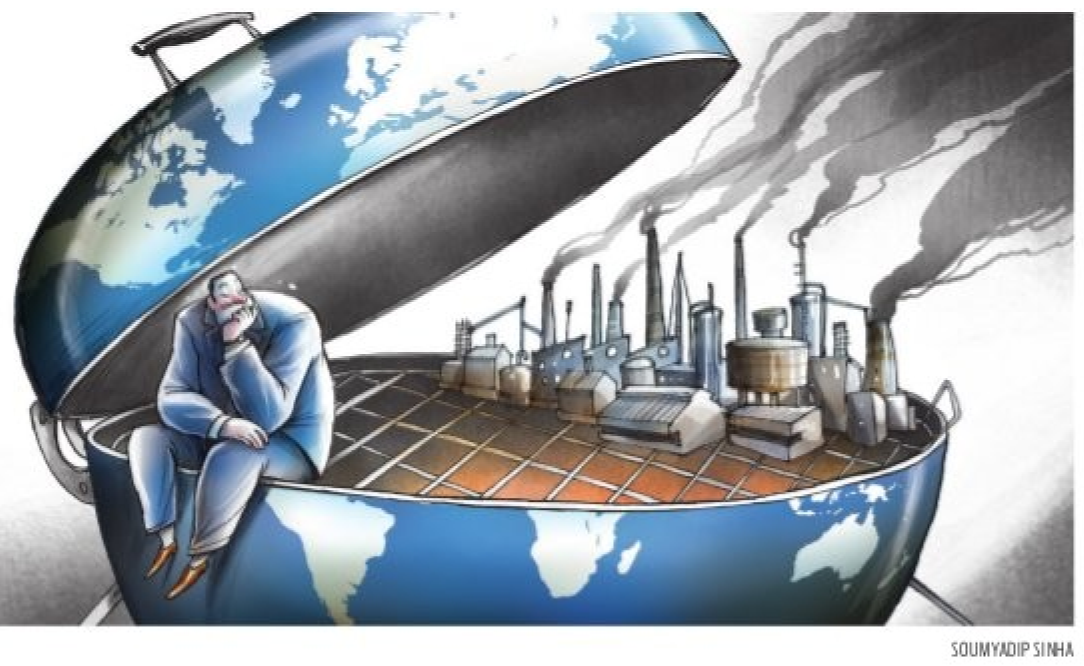
The government announced a record-high gross borrowing programme of ₹14.95 lakh crore this fiscal, pegging deficit at 6.4% of GDP, but concerns are being raised given the rising expenditure. For instance, fertiliser subsidy alone may more than double to ₹2.5 lakh crore, even as the recent excise and import duty cuts translate to nearly ₹1 lakh crore in foregone revenue. While the recovery in growth rate and elevated inflation (which jacks up nominal GDP) may reduce the headline debt-to-GDP ratio, the centre and states must lower the combined debt to avoid its destabilising effects. The differential interest and growth rates of advanced economies have been favourable so far, but tightening monetary policies worldwide erodes this advantage. India needs a credible debt management strategy.

Even if all the countries decrease emissions to stick to the 2 degree-level as per the Paris Agreement, there will still be an increase in extreme weather and climate events

EXPECT EXTREME WEATHER TO TURN MORE CALAMITOUS

KRISHNA ACHUTARAO

Professor and Head, Centre for Atmospheric Sciences, IIT Delhi



SOUMYADIP SINHA

Over the past month, the people in the northeastern states of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, and Meghalaya have endured heavy monsoon rainfall and resultant landslides and flooding of multiple rivers. In Assam alone, the death toll has crossed 170, and over 3 million people in 30 districts have been affected, with many lakhs displaced from homes and staying in makeshift relief camps.

Floods preceded this in May that affected people in 27 out of 34 districts. Neighbouring Bangladesh has also been similarly affected by the floods. While flooding in these parts nearly occurs yearly, the prolonged flooding over large parts of the northeast this year has made this event unusual.

A few months back, we had another unusual event—the prolonged heat-wave-like conditions over large parts of central and northwest India and southeast Pakistan starting as early as March this year. In a recent "event attribution" study, we estimated that without the human-induced climate change, the heat wave this year would have occurred about once in 3000 years but now occurs perhaps once in 100 years—an increase in the likelihood of about 30! While a similar attribution study for the Assam floods is yet to be carried out, it is entirely consistent with the effects of climate change caused by human activity.

The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) recently released three Sixth Assessment Reports. They strongly emphasise that human emissions of greenhouse gases and other pollutants have increased global temperatures. They assess that extreme weather and climate events (such as heat waves and heavy rainfall) have become more severe, leading to increased impacts on human and natural systems across the globe.

Heat-related events have increased in frequency, intensity and duration due to human activity everywhere in the world. Increases in heavy rainfall events have been harder to track globally due to short data records.

Still, several regions have documented increased incidence of heavy rainfall events and some others of droughts. Several regions are also seeing an increase in extreme compound events where droughts and heat waves happen together, or stronger cyclones cause heavier rainfall with increased flooding due to sea level rise.

The documented increases in extreme events tell the story of the planet's warming of about 1.2 degrees centigrade to date (relative to before the advent of industrialisation). We are by no means done with warming and resultant climate change. Our continued emissions of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases will further warm the planet till we stop those emissions.

If we consider all the pledges and promises made by all nations to halt net emissions, we will have warmed the planet by about 2.7 degrees centigrade. Even if all the countries of the world step up and reduce their emissions rapidly to keep global temperature change under the Paris Agreement goal of 2 degrees (or the more ambitious 1.5 degrees) centigrade, we will still see an increase in the extreme events from current levels.

Without the human-induced climate change, the heat wave this year would have occurred about once in 3000 years but now occurs perhaps once in 100 years—an increase in the likelihood of about 30

We can expect the hazards of extreme weather and climate events to increase in frequency, magnitude and duration. However, we must know how much worse they can get and how to avoid the worst impacts of these events. Event attribution studies such as the one we carried out for this year's heat wave indicate that there could be a 1-in-50 or even 1-in-5 chance of such an event occurring in any year (instead of the current 1-in-100) when global temperatures reach 2 degrees centigrade above pre-industrial levels.

But we don't have enough such studies that give us a long-term perspective on future changes of the hazards we should care about. This is different from disaster mitigation as it is currently done, where short-term weather forecasts inform how disaster response professionals act to prevent loss of lives and property. By focusing exclusively on the here and now, we are missing a chance to look ahead and see that it will get much worse. While action plans at the national and state levels attempt to look ahead and plan for climate change, there are concerns that the focus on extreme weather and climate events may be inadequate.

I have so far just discussed the changing physical hazard. A more comprehensive look at the changing risks will involve analysing changing exposure and vulnerability of the country—the things that turn extreme weather events into a disaster. In addition to the apparent toll on human lives and livelihoods, the impact of events is felt across multiple sectors. For example, agricultural production—the estimated loss of wheat crop due to the early heat wave this year is nearly 20% in Punjab and Haryana, and standing crops lost to floods in Assam are in the tens of thousands of hectares. As we move into an era of increasing hazards, what are the added risks to food security, infrastructure and the overall economy? Few systematic studies address such questions in the Indian context, and we must address them.

Since Independence, healthcare planners have neglected the indigenous systems of healthcare like ayurveda, resulting in our healthcare scenario being dismal. Although most of our population is still dependent on these indigenous systems, ayurveda receives only 1.5% of the government's health budget.

As diseases are innumerable and newer ones keep appearing, creating new vaccines and tailor-made drugs with limited scope and numerous side-effects for each new illness, as is done currently, has not proved to be a viable strategy. It would therefore be wise to rely on ayurveda which, with its strong theoretical base and an extensive pharmacopoeia with innumerable drugs, is capable of dealing with a wide range of diseases, new or old.

Malnutrition: The World Bank estimated that India is th highest ranking country in the world regarding the number of children suffering from malnutrition, which is responsible for 22% of India's disease burden and a factor in about half of all child deaths.

Children deprived of breast-milk face a bleak future because they lose out on essential nutrition from their diet. Milk, the most critical food for children, is lacking in their diet. An ongoing programme, known as JEEVANI—in several village schools—of giving milk fortified with Ashwagandhadi Choornam, an ayurvedic nutritional supplement and an ayurvedic iron supplement, has shown excellent results in reducing malnutrition and anaemia among children, besides boosting immunity to diseases. The improved health has drastically reduced their visits to doctors/hospitals, resulting in a drop in health-related expenses and school absenteeism.

Anaemia: High rates of anaemia among women and children persist despite decades of effort under the National Nutritional Anaemia Prophylaxis Programme. Anaemia and related complications cause nearly 40% of maternal deaths. A paradigm shift is required at this juncture. Anaemia can be dealt with effectively by introducing an ayurvedic diet and medicines for women, children and pregnant mothers. Ayurveda has many iron compounds in the form of tablets, Bhasma, Arishta (fermented drugs), and medicated ghee. Primary Health Centres can handle this programme with proper orientation and trained health personnel.

Healthy anaemia-free pregnancy and a normal delivery are crucial for reducing Maternal Mortality (MMR). Adopting ayurvedic pregnancy and a post-delivery regimen can help women enjoy a healthy pregnancy and a normal delivery and regain their strength and vitality quickly after childbirth.

Childbirth: The high caesarean deliveries in public and private facilities are alarming. When caesarean surgeries become prevalent in a population of anaemic and malnourished women, there is a sharp increase in morbidity and mortality. The only solution to this problem is the reintroduction of trained, traditional midwives (who perform only natural deliveries) into the public healthcare system. Sweden, which mainstreamed traditional midwives more than a century ago, made extraordinary progress very early in lowering Maternal Mortality.

Children: India's Infant Mortality Rate (IMR) also presents an alarming picture. One-fourth of all child deaths in the world occur in India. Respiratory conditions and diarrheal diseases account for nearly 50% of all child deaths under the age of five.

Roughly more than one million deaths annually occur from Acute Respiratory Infections (ARI) in India. The death toll from ARI is higher than that of HIV/AIDS, Malaria and Tuberculosis combined. Among children, ARI causes maximum disease and death. Repeated use of antibiotics on children who are malnourished and anaemic with poor resistance to diseases causes further morbidity and mortality.

Among children, ARI causes maximum disease and death. Repeated use of antibiotics on children who are malnourished and anaemic ... causes further morbidity and mortality. Ayurvedic physicians use a wide range of medicines to treat all respiratory illnesses ... Mainstreaming ayurveda may be the ... best way to tackle ARI in India

Ayurvedic physicians use a wide range of medicines to treat all respiratory illnesses, viral or bacterial. Mainstreaming ayurveda may be the safest and best way to tackle ARI in India.

Next to respiratory diseases, Acute Diarrheal Diseases (ADD) commonly afflict children below five. They are supposed to be caused by different organisms, some known and many unknown. For ADD, the popularly used Oral Rehydration Therapy plays no direct role in fighting the disease and has become the most common management technique. The treatment protocol in public health for ADD remains woefully inadequate. This can be entirely reversed by involving ayurveda which understands ADD as a severe digestive disorder and offers specific and effective medicines for fast recovery. Many viral infectious diseases have no known treatment in the Allopathic system. Covid-19 is only one such disease. Our previous article dealt with this in detail. (TNIE 25-06-2022)

Even in surgery, ayurveda can contribute significantly. It is a fact that the ayurvedic practice of Kshara Sutra in treating anorectal conditions such as haemorrhoids and fistula is far superior to conventional surgery.

Another example is the setting of fractures. Doctors resort to surgeries even for the simplest of fractures. Our traditional bone-setters need mainstream recognition. One of the stated objectives of the National Rural Health Mission was to bring Indian Systems of Medicine (ISM) into the mainstream.

However, no serious attempt is yet forthcoming to evaluate and tap the vast potential of ayurveda in dealing with public health issues. Attempts to improve the health of Indians must therefore begin by identifying areas where the much-needed inputs are already available from ISM.

BJP on a roll

This is with reference to the news President-elect Murmu (July 22). Droupadi Murmu has truly scripted history. The new president of India is a symbol of all in the marginalised communities. Independence Day is around the corner, and the present development just tops the celebrations. This win isn't just a win—it shows that the BJP has some broader interests in mind in terms of consolidating its power in the country. The party is already eyeing the next set of elections. However, this outcome also shows that the Opposition lacks unity.

Invalid votes

There were 53 invalid votes by the MPs and MLAs in the presidential election. They are supposed to be the representatives of the people and speak for them. However, this development is utterly disappointing. We are ashamed of our representatives and hope that things change for the better.

Murmu's victory

More than 100 MPs and MLAs cross-voted for NDA presidential candidate Droupadi Murmu, catapulting her to a high-margin victory over Opposition candidate Yashwant Sinha. Although it was a good win with 64% valid votes, there is only one conclusion—caste and religion triumph over political ideologies and party decisions. There were even invalid votes. One wonders if the voters were ignorant of voting rules or it could simply be a ploy to bypass party lines.

Vice-prez drama

The Trinamool Congress' decision to refrain from voting in the vice-presidential polls to be held on August 6 points to the rampant disunity in the Opposition. The Mamata-led party has reasoned by saying that the Opposition finalised Margaret Alva's name without proper consultation and deliberation with the TMC. But one wonders why TMC adopted this ploy considering that the NDA vice-presidential candidate, Jagdeep Dhankhar, has had frequent run-ins with the TMC. Politics and its many strategies are indeed strange to understand!

Scarcity of officers in Armed Forces more than 10% of strength

Indian Army alone is facing shortage of 1,08,685 soldiers, says MoS Defence in Parliament

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

AT the time when foot on ground in Eastern Ladakh has swelled in recent years the scarcity of personnel stands at more than a lakh. Also, the combined scarcity of the personnel of the Junior Commissioned Officers (JCO) and Other Ranks (ORS) in the Army, Navy and Air Force stands at more than a lakh and that of the officers is above 10 percent of the sanctioned posts.

The scarcity in the Indian Army at JCOs and ORs is 1,08685 whereas in the Indian Air Force it is 5217 and 12,151 in the Indian Navy. The sanctioned strength for the services stands at 12,41,768 JCOs and ORs in the Indian Army, 1, 56,362 in Air Force and 75,866 in the Navy.

The data pertaining to the scarcity of personnel in the Armed Forces was shared by Ajay Bhatt, Minister of State (Defence) in the Lok Sabha.

Coming to the officers, the Indian Army has 7308 vacancies and 1446 and 572 are the vacancies of the Indian Navy and Air Force respectively. The sanctioned strength of officers is 56, 972 for the Indian Army, 11,821 for Navy and 12,745 for the Indian Air Force. A senior officer said that the scarcity leads to distribution of the work which otherwise would have been done by the people posted as officers, JCOs and Other Ranks in the positions which are lying vacant and this also leads to stress.

The Vacancies, as the officers told persist at the level of the lower ranks at Lieutenant, Captain and Major and the equivalents in the other two services. And, these are the positions which are operationally most committed.

Ajay Bhatt in his reply added that steps are being taken to fill the vacancies. "The Government has taken a number of measures to reduce the shortages. These, interalia, include sustained image projection, participation in career fairs and exhibitions and publicity campaigns to create awareness among the youth on the advantages of taking up a challenging and satisfying career."

Not allowed to raise Agnipath & LAC, Oppn MPs leave defence panel meet

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

OPPOSITION MPs on Friday walked out of a meeting of the Parliament Standing Committee on Defence alleging they were not allowed to raise issue related to the Agnipath recruitment scheme and India-China border stand-off.

Congress MPs K C Venugopla and Uttam Kumar Reddy and BSP MP Danish Ali walked out after Standing Committee chairman Jual Oram said that matters not listed in the agenda cannot be discussed.

Venugopal said that the MPs walked out in protest from Friday's meeting of Parliament Standing Committee on Defence for not taking up the controversial Agnipath scheme despite their repeated requests and a letter addressed to the chairman requesting the same.

"We urged the chairman to clarify; why the Parliament Standing Committee on Defence was kept in dark on the Agnipath recruitment scheme? Why the scheme was not taken up in the committee's budget scrutiny meetings despite involving financial implications? The chairman turned a deaf ear to these crucial questions & the scheme was not discussed. No discussion in Parliament, no deliberations in the Parliament Standing Committees, thus goes the way of bulldozing legislations in the Modi era," he tweeted.

Oram had reportedly said that anything outside the agenda of the meeting would not be discussed. The members told the chairman that not allowing a discussion on Agnipath amounted to insulting the Parliament and not informing the committee about the scheme is breach of privilege and their request to list the matter in the next meeting was also turned down. Another MP, who is member of the committee, said that they also demanded that the committee should be briefed about India-China border issues and why the committee has been denied permission to visit Kashmir.

The Agnipath scheme had sparked protests across the country. It allows a four-year tour of duty, after which 25 per cent personnel would be absorbed into the force based on their performance.

PM meets ministers to discuss strategy on smooth functioning of Parliament

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

AS disruptions continue in Parliament, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday chaired a meeting of key ministers to discuss the government's floor strategy to ensure smooth functioning of both the Houses and push the legislative business.

Several Union ministers including Rajnath Singh, Amit Shah, Pralhad Joshi, Anurag Singh Thakur, Kiren Rijiju and Piyush Goyal were present at the meeting. Both the Lok Sabha and the Rajya Sabha have seen repeated disruptions with the Opposition demanding discussion on price rise and inflation.

The government had earlier said it was ready for a discussion on these issues once Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharam recovers from Covid-19.

The first four days of the monsoon session were almost a complete washout because of protests by the Opposition benches.

The Opposition said it will continue to push for a discussion on price rise during the second week of the Parliament session and accused the government of running away from issues that concern the masses.

After initial adjournments, the Lok Sabha managed to take up and pass the Indian Antarctic Bill, 2022, that introduces a permit requirement for expeditions to Antarctica and for undertaking certain activities.

The Rajya Sabha discussed a Private Member's Bill on the Right to Health that seeks to provide for health as a fundamental right to all citizens and to ensure equitable access and maintenance of a standard of physical and mental health.

RS proceedings were adjourned twice pre-lunch amid protests by the Opposition. Union minister Piyush Goyal, who was replying to questions related to wheat purchase, said the entire world is discussing food security and "even in such conditions, our Opposition is not ready for a discussion".

India has extended credit worth $1850 mn to Lanka

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

INDIA has extended 8 Lines of Credit (LoCs) to Sri Lanka amounting to US$1850.64 million over the past 10 years in sectors like railways, infrastructure, defence, renewable energy, petroleum and fertilisers, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said in a written reply to a question by DMK MP S Ramalingam in the Lok Sabha.

Under its 'Neighbourhood First' policy, India has extended support to the island nation by giving short-term and long-term loans. "In January 2022, India extended a $400 million currency swap to Sri Lanka under the SAARC Framework and deferred successive Asian Clearing Union settlements till July 6. A Line of Credit of $500 million was extended for importing fuel from India," Jaishankar added.

Besides, a credit facility of $1 billion for the procurement of food, medicines and other essential items from India has also been extended.

India has also extended humanitarian assistance in the form of essential medicines worth ₹6 crore, 15,000 litres of kerosene oil and $55 million worth LoC for procurement of urea. "In addition, the Government of Tamil Nadu has contributed rice, milk powder and medicines worth $16 million, as part of the larger Indian assistance effort," the minister said.

The issue of Sri Lanka arresting Indian fisherman was also raised in Parliament. Minister of State for External Affairs, V Muraleedharan said 144 Indian fishermen were arrested this year so far allegedly crossing the Maritime Boundary Line and fishing in Sri Lankan waters.

The Indian government secured the release of 138 fishermen of whom 115 have been repatriated and 23 are to be repatraiated soon. At present, there are 6 Indian fishermen in Sri Lankan custody and efforts are on for their early release, Muraleedharan added.

Row over private members' bills on population, UCC

Three controversial bills — Uniform Civil Code, Population Control Bill and repeal of Places of Worship Act — listed as private member bills by BJP MPs created uproar in Parliament on Friday with Opposition members demanding that the Chair should refuse permission to introduce them. Five CPI(M) MPs gave notices to the Rajya Sabha Chairman for disallowing the private members' bills. While 'The Uniform Civil Code in India Bill- 2020' was brought up by Kirori Lal Meena and 'The Places of Worship (Spl Provisions) Repeal Bill, 2022' by HS Yadav, actor-turned-BJP lawmaker Ravi Kishan listed the bill on population control in the Lok Sabha, saying India can be a 'Vishwa Guru' only when the Population Control Bill is brought. The bills could not be taken up as none of the MPs who listed them were present in the House when their turn came up for introduction. The BJP MPs have been listing these bills for the last many sessions but skip the proceedings when it is listed to be taken up. The private member bills are not taken up in absence of members who have listed it. Even as some ruling party MPs, including a cabinet minister, have flagged the need for bringing population control bill, the Union Health Ministry on Tuesday said it's not considering any such proposal. To a written question by Kerala MP John Brittas in the Rajya Sabha, MoS, Health and Family Welfare Bharti Pravin Pawar said, "The government is not contemplating any legislative measures." ENS

DGCA ORDER

Airlines can't deny boarding to disabled

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

THE Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on Friday said that no airline shall deny boarding to persons with disability or reduced mobility.

This includes assistive aids, escorts and guide dogs, provided such persons or their representatives at the time of booking inform the airline of their requirements, the DGCA said.

"Airlines shall incorporate appropriate provisions on their website within three months, so that while making bookings, passengers with disability have the option to select the required facilities, which they require during the journey," it said.

There is a need to standardise the conditions for travel of persons with disability so as to facilitate their acceptance and handling of their carriage by the airlines, airport operators, ground handling agencies.

This comes within two months after a specially-abled teenager and his parents could not board their scheduled flight to Hyderabad from Ranchi after IndiGo staff denied them entry into the aircraft.

According to the DGCA, a person with disability means any individual who has a physical or mental impairment that, on a permanent or temporary basis, substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment.

"In case, an airline perceives that the health of such a passenger may deteriorate inflight, the said passenger will have to be examined by a doctor in person -- who shall in his/her opinion, categorically state the medical condition and whether the passenger is fit to fly or not," said the DGCA, adding that the airline shall take an appropriate decision on the carriage of such a passenger after obtaining the medical opinion. "In case of refusal of carriage by the airline, it shall inform the passenger in writing with the reasons therein immediately."

Airlines, including their travel agents, shall not discriminate persons with disability or reduced mobility in providing access for internet ticketing, special discounted fares, time limit for holding the bookings, reservations on telephone, the regulator said.

The DGCA said it should be the responsibility of the persons with disability to notify their needs at least 48 hours before the scheduled time of departure so that the airline makes necessary arrangements.

Meanwhile, the Freedom of Movement Coalition (FMC) (a pan-India group advocating for equity in transport) has urged for a rollback of DGCA's decision alleging that it is discriminatory.

DOMESTIC AIR PASSENGER TRAFFIC GREW 67 PER CENT IN JAN-JUNE 2022: DGCA

Performance of domestic airlines for the year 2022 was based on data submitted by various domestic airlines submitted in June. There were 572.5 lakh passengers carried by domestic airlines during January to June 2022 as against 343.4 lakh during the corresponding period of the previous year, thereby registering annual growth of 66.7 per cent and monthly growth of 237.7 per cent.

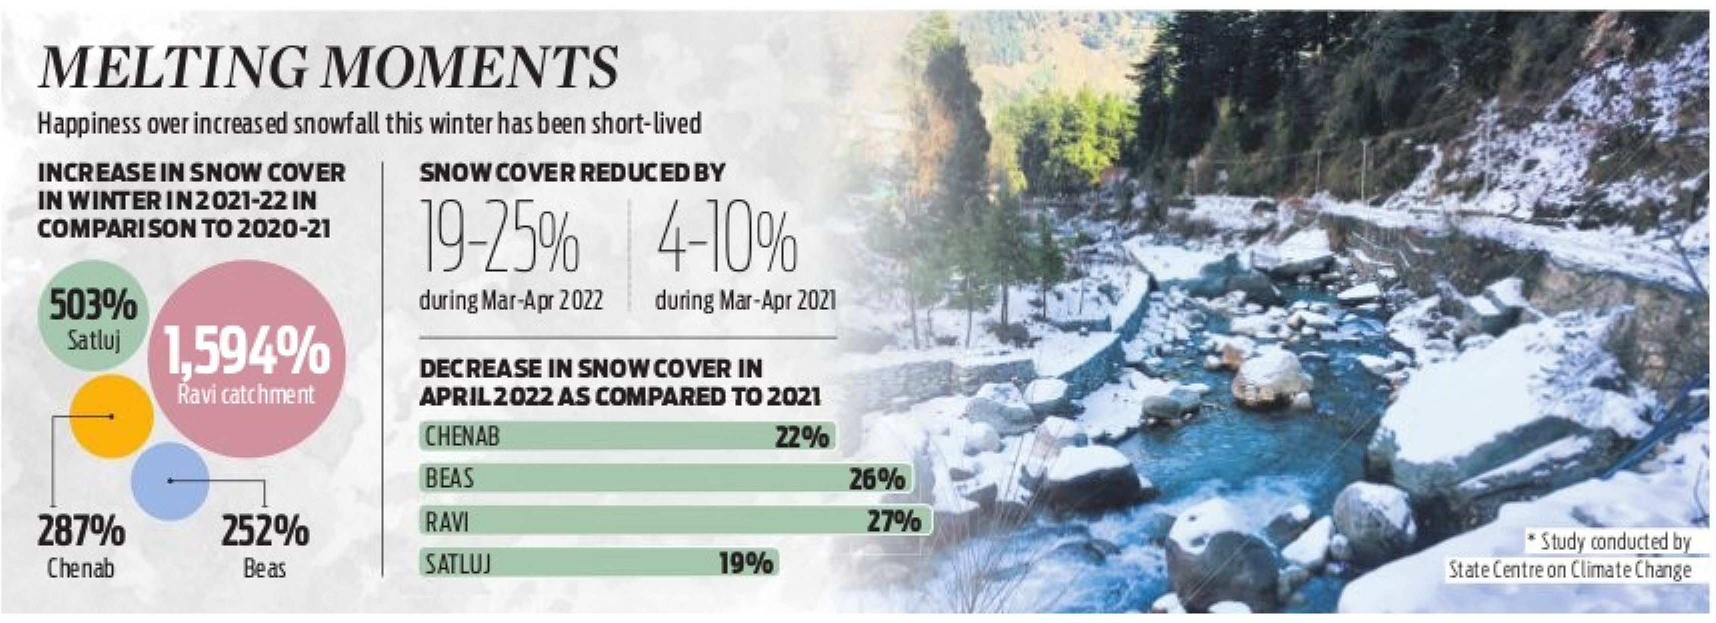
Faster snow melting in Himachal despite rise in cover

Sudden rise in temperatures in March and April results in quicker melting of snow, even though the state saw more snowfall this winter

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh



* Study conducted by State Centre on Climate Change

A bigger snow cover in Himachal Pradesh melted at a faster pace this year due to a sudden rise in temperatures in March-April this year. This is the finding of a study conducted by State Centre on Climate Change under the aegis of the Himachal Pradesh Council for Science Technology and Environment (HIMCOSTE) in collaboration with Space Applications Centre (ISRO), Ahmedabad.

Early this year, Himachal saw a rich spread of snow that was 19.47% per cent more in the area under snowfall during winters last year. The happy news, however, lasted hardly a month as a sudden rise in temperatures melted the snow cover at a faster pace, reducing it by 19 to 25% per cent compared to 4-10% last year.

The study predicts reduced snow cover in the coming months in various river basins of the state, affecting the hydropower generation in the downstream areas and water shortage.

The study says about one-third of the total geographical area of the hill state remains under a thick snow cover during the winter season. Most major rivers such as the Chenab, Beas, Parvati, Baspa, Spiti, Ravi, Satluj and its perennial tributaries originating from the Himalayas depend upon the seasonal snow cover, besides the glacier input for their discharge dependability.

Besides, the snow cover also helps in controlling the accumulation and ablation patterns of the glaciated regions in the state.

Talking to this newspaper, SS Randhawa, Principal Scientific Officer of HIMCOSTE said due to early winters last year and snowfall in October, more areas came under snow. The maximum variation was noticed in the Ravi catchment, where the snow cover increased from 127 km (2020-21) to 2,167 km (2021-22) — about 1,594 % per cent increase.

But due to early summers this year, the snow cover melted quickly as the temperature in April rose to almost eight degree higher than normal this year. "The analysis of April, which is considered the beginning of the ablation period, shows a decreasing trend in the snow cover area in all four basins. In other words, we can say the snow cover area has been vacated by virtue of melting during April ranging between 19 and 27 % in comparison to 2020-21,'' said Randhawa.

When compared to the corresponding months in 2021, the maximum temperature increased by 3.0ºC in May this year in the Chenab basin, while in Ravi basin the temperature rise was 2.3ºC in March, 6.1ºC in April and 3.5ºC in May. At Chamba and Dalhousie, the rise was 2.1ºC, 7.6ºC and 5.0ºC in March, April and May, respectively. Likewise, the temperature increase in Satluj basin was 2.8ºC in March, 8.2ºC in April and 2.9ºC in May.

"Due to this abrupt rise in temperature in all the basins, the melting rate was accelerated in all the basins, thereby leading to reduction of snow cover area in each basin,'' the study stated.

According to Randhawa, if the trend continues in the coming winter season as well, then this depletion will have serious repercussions on the hydro sector in the state, leading to water shortage in the downstream areas.

Lalit Jain, Member Secretary HIMCOSTE, said snow melting and snowfall patterns have become quite unpredictable due to climate change.

No decision on UCC yet, says Rijiju

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

AS the demand for a Uniform Civil Code (UCC) is gaining traction among some BJP-ruled states, Union Minister of Law and Justice Kiran Rijiju said on Friday that no decision has been taken on its implementation yet, as the issue is sub-judice with some petitions pending in the Supreme Court.

While replying to a question on UCC in the Lok Sabha, the minister noted that Article 44 of the Constitution advocates that the State shall endeavour to secure a uniform civil code throughout the country.

"Personal laws relate to Entry 5 of List-III-Concurrent List of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, and hence, the states are also empowered to legislate upon them," he added. The UCC calls for a common set of laws for all religions in personal matters such as marriage, divorce, inheritance and succession.

The contentious issue of enacting a uniform family law—a major electoral plank of the BJP since 2008—had invited opposition from many quarters including political parties and civil society groups.

However, former BJP leader K N Govindacharya feels the time is ripe to implement the law. "It's about assuring prosperity and security to all communities, without any discrimination," he said.

Missing labourers: Disaster response team combs jungle

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR
@ Guwahati

OVER two weeks after 19 labourers from Assam went missing in Arunachal Pradesh, a team of the State Disaster Response Force (SDRF) continues to comb the densely-forested area in Kurung Kumey district along the China border. Congress MP Gaurav Gogoi has also written to Defence Minister Rajnath Singh to involve the Army in the operation to locate the workers who have not been seen since July 5.

"There is no clarity on when, why and how they went missing. The district administration had conducted a search operation but the team could not find them since the area is inhospitable…," Gogoi wrote to Singh. He requested the defence minister to immediately order an Army-led search and rescue operation "keeping in mind the invaluable lives of the persons and the geo-political aspect of the incident."

The state government has requested the Indian Air Force to deploy a helicopter for an aerial search, Kurung Kumey District Magistrate Nighee Bengia told this newspaper. He said he had no idea if the IAF communicated this request to the state government. A defence spokesperson said, "I have asked for details. There is no information as yet."

Bengia said the 25-member SDRF team is being helped by the police and local residents in the search operation.

"The SDRF team began the search on Thursday. The superintendent of police and other police officials joined it on Friday morning. They are scouting a jungle which the labourers had entered. There is no mobile connectivity in the area and I could not contact them," Bengia said.

He said the personnel are carrying food and necessary equipment with them.

The labourers, mostly Muslims, were engaged in the construction of a road from Huri under Damin circle to the international border. The Border Roads Organisation is executing the project.

On the night of July 5, they had fled their camp. The aerial distance from the place to China border is 15-20 km.

Junior Thackerays touring Maharashtra to strengthen base

When my father was in hospital, these MLAs were plotting to topple the government by joining hands with the opposition. People will teach them a lesson

Aaditya Thackeray, Shiv Sena

MAHARASHTRA political arena is abuzz with Thackeray scions touring the state extensively. Both Aaditya Thackeray, son of Shiv Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray, and MNS chief Raj Thackeray's son Amit Thackeray have been touring rural areas to connect with the masses.

The move assumes significance following rebellion in the Shiv Sena camp. Recently, Uddhav had to quit as chief minister after Eknath Shinde's revolt. Shinde has posed a major challenge to the Thackerays to retain the base.

Aaditya has been given the task of pacifying rebel Sena leaders in Thane, Bhiwandi, Nasik, Aurangabad. Uddhav, too, has also been scheduled to tour Maharashtra in August to mobilise cadre.

"We trusted them (rebels) as our own people, but they turned out to be traitors. When my father Uddhav Thackeray was in hospital for his spine surgery, these MLAs were plotting to topple the government by joining hands with the opposition. People will teach them a lesson," Aaditya has said in his Nasik rally.

Meanwhile, Shiv Sainiks on Friday heckled rebel Sena MLA Suhas Kande in Nasik.

"Not a single traitor MLA will win election again. People will show them their place. They did not leave for the Hindutva. They left due to pressure by central agencies. We are not bothered as long as Shiv Sainiks are with us," Aaditya said.

On the other hand, Amit, appointed as president of MNS student wing, has been touring several parts of the state. He has been travelling in local trains and eating food with locals as part of the party's mass-contact programmes. Raj recently underwent a major surgery and is recuperating.

ED questions Bengal minister in SSC scam, seizes ₹20 cr from aide

PRANAB MONDAL @Kolkata

A day after Trinamool Congress chief Mamata Banerjee accused the BJP of misusing central agencies against her party leaders, Enforcement Directorate (ED) sleuths arrived at former education minister and party secretary general Partha Chatterjee's house in Kolkata on Friday and interrogated him for nearly 10 hours over alleged irregularities in recruitment of teachers in schools through the School Service Commission.

The ED recovered ₹20 crore from one of the locations, owned by a woman known to Chatterjee. "During the course of searches, the ED recovered ₹20 crore cash from the residential premises of Arpita Mukherjee. The sum is suspected to be proceeds of SSC scam," ED stated.

ED teams, comprising 80 personnel, conducted simultaneous raids at 13 locations, including houses of state minister Paresh Adhikari in Cooch Behar and former advisor of SSC's screening committee Santi Prasad Sinha.

Chatterjee, who is now the commerce and industries minister, has been interrogated by the CBI twice in this case. While he could not be contacted, Adhikari said, "I am in Kolkata. I heard that ED officials reached my house but I don't know the details.'' The Calcutta HC had found appointment of Adhikari's daughter as a teacher was illegal and terminated her service asking her to refund the salary.

The TMC described the ED's action politically motivated. "The BJP got scared of the roars of our lakhs of supporters who turned up at our Martyrs' Day event,'' said state minister Firhad Hakim.

Rubbishing the allegation, BJP's Dilip Ghosh said, "The law is taking its own course."

BJP leader questions voter list aberrations

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

THE ruling BJP's national general secretary, Kailash Vijayvargiya, has questioned discrepancies in the voters' list used in the recent urban local body polls in MP.

"The way the voter list was revised is alarming. Who's to be blamed for it, the local administrations or the state election commission, needs to be taken up seriously by the chief minister," Vijayvargiya said in a televised interview in Indore on Friday.

"The CM trusts the bureaucracy more, but he needs to trust the BJP workers equally. Had he trusted the party workers the way he trusts the bureaucracy, what has happened in voter lists at various places might not have happened," he added.

Both, the BJP and the Opposition Congress, had expressed displeasure over discrepancies in the voter list due to which many couldn't cast their vote.

Vijayvargiya also showed surprise that in five of the seven cities where BJP lost the mayoral polls, it won in municipal wards.

"While our mayor candidates lost in cities like Jabalpur, Gwalior and Rewa, BJP was ahead in councilor polls in municipal wards of the same cities. This suggests some lapse in poll management," he said.

OVER 120 MLAS, 17 MPS CROSS-VOTED FOR MURMU

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

All those MLAs who voted in favour of the NDA candidate are visionaries, as they voted in line with popular sentiments of people, who wanted that the country should have a tribal President

MLAs in significant numbers from Assam, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra, among others, cast their ballots for Murmu. "Voted as per conscience" was a common refrain among some MLAs

DEFYING their parties' stated support for Opposition joint presidential candidate Yashwant Sinha, more than 120 MLAs, mostly from the Congress, cross-voted in favour of NDA's presidential candidate Droupadi Murmu.

Besides the legislators, 17 Opposition MPs also voted in favour of Murmu in the election held on July 18. Murmu polled 676,803 and Sinha secured 380,177 votes.

MLAs in significant numbers from Assam, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra, among others, cast their ballots for Murmu. While 22, 19, 16 and 12 legislators from Assam, MP, Maharashtra and UP, respectively, cross-voted for Murmu, MLAs from Gujarat and Jharkhand (10 each), Bihar and Chhattisgarh (six each), Rajasthan (five) and Goa (four) voted for the NDA candidate.

In a tweet, Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma indicated Opposition MLAs cross-voted on July 18. "Droupadi Murmu polled 104 votes compared to NDA's original strength of 79 in the 126 member Assam Assembly. 2 absent," he said.

"Voted as per conscience" was a common refrain among some MLAs. In the case of Gujarat, where the Congress has 63 MLAs, besides the support of a lone independent legislator (Jignesh Mevani), 57 voted for Sinha. This means that seven Congress MLAs threw in their lot for Murmu. One Nationalist Congress Party MLA voted for Murmu. NCP MLAs from Maharashtra also voted for her.

In MP, the ruling BJP's state president V D Sharma said at least 19 MLAs cross-voted in favour of Murmu. "All those who voted in favour of the NDA candidate are visionaries, as they voted in line with popular sentiments of people," Sharma said.

In Bihar, BJP president Sanjay Jaiswal claimed that eight RJD MLAs extended their support to Murmu.

The NDA nominee received votes of 133 MLAs even as the number of legislators from the ruling alliance is 127.

Raipur residents seem excited with the pro-boxing event, called 'Rumble In The Jungle', to be organised in the state capital next month. Olympic bronze medallist Vijender Singh, 36, is set to be a part of the professional boxing tournament at Balbir Singh Juneja Indoor stadium. The event, to be held with the support of the Chhattisgarh government, will feature bouts between other international professional boxers. It will be Vijender's sixth bout in India. Such event is being organised for the first time in the state. The event, sports lovers feel, is a great opportunity to introduce boxing to the people of the region and to inspire a new generation of boxers.

MSP: Not just paddy, but pulses too

After a record procurement of paddy this year, the Chhattisgarh government has now announced that it will procure pulses on minimum support price (MSP). The decision, the government says, has been made keeping in focus the interest of the farmers. Pulses like arhar, urad and moong will be taken at MSP in the kharif marketing year 2022-23. While arhar and urad will be purchased at `6,600 per quintal, the price of moong will be `7,755 per quintal. With the elections due next year, the Bhupesh Baghel government is making all efforts to woo farmers. As many as 25 Krishi Upaj Mandis with godown and storage facilities have been identified as procurement centres for the purchase.

Don't glorify celebrity suicides: Experts

Suicide should never be an option for anyone but glorification of celebrity suicides remains a major concern, health professionals of AIIMS Raipur said at an event. Quoting the World Health Organization, they said, "For every suicide there are many more people who attempt suicide every year." Many researchers, including Gregory Armstrong from Melbourne, stressed that glorified conversation on celebrity suicide cases may encourage depressed or psychologically weak patients to take a suicidal step. Research has found that people search such topics extensively on the internet. And less mature depressed persons are more at risk to take a suicidal step under these circumstances.

BOLLYWOOD star Salman Khan met Mumbai Police Commissioner Vivek Phansalkar on Friday and applied for a gun licence after death threats. Khan didn't talk to the media, but he reportedly applied for a gun license for self-protection at the Mumbai CP office.

Khan and his father Salim Khan had received a threat letter in June, days after Punjabi singer Sidhu Moose Wala was gunned down by members of gangster Lawrence Bishnoi, who had threatened the actor in 2018 too. Bishnoi, who had been serving time in Delhi's Tihar Jail, is in Punjab Police custody in connection with the investigation into the murder of Moose Wala.

Grain export from Ukraine may start in few days

Release of 25 million tonnes of wheat and other grains expected

ISTANBUL

RUSSIAN Defence Minister Sergei Shoigu said Friday that conditions were in place to unlock grain exports from Ukraine in the "next few days" and promised Moscow would not take advantage of de-mined Ukrainian ports.

"Today we have all the prerequisites and all the solutions for this process to begin in the next few days," Shoigu said, after signing a landmark deal with the UN and Turkey on resuming grain shipments.

"We are talking not only about the beginning of the export of agricultural products from Ukrainian ports, but also, of course, work on agricultural products, fertiliser from Russian ports," he said in televised remarks.

He added that Russia formally pledged not to take advantage of de-mined Ukrainian ports. "We have undertaken this obligation," he said, referring to Friday's deal. "Moreover, a very specific date is indicated there, the exact period for which this will all be done."

Ukrainian Minister of Infrastructure signs deal to free up the export of grain from Ukrainian ports | AFP

Shoigu and Ukrainian Infrastructure Minister Oleksandr Kubrakov each signed separate but identical agreements with UN and Turkish officials on reopening blocked Black Sea delivery routes. The grain deal could ease a global food crisis in which millions face hunger.

On a visit to Tehran earlier this week, Russian President Vladimir Putin said the West must also remove restrictions on exports of Russian grain.

Russia's military intervention in Ukraine has hampered shipments from one of the world's biggest exporters of wheat and other grain, sparking fears of global food shortages. Ukraine is one of the world's largest exporters of wheat, corn and sunflower oil, but Russia's naval blockade of its ports have halted shipments. Up to 25 million tonnes of wheat and other grain have been blocked. Some grain is being transported through Europe by rail, road and river, but the prices of vital commodities like wheat and barley have soared during the nearly five-month war.

The deal makes provisions for the safe passage of ships. A control centre will be established in Istanbul, staffed by UN, Turkish, Russian and Ukrainian officials, to run and coordinate the process. Ships would undergo inspections to ensure they are not carrying weapons.

Podolyak insisted that no Russian ship would escort vessels and that there would be no Russian representative present at Ukrainian ports. "Ukraine also plans an immediate military response 'in case of provocations,'" he said. Agencies

Lanka gets new cabinet with old faces

COLOMBO

DINESH Gunawardena, a veteran politician and a close ally of the Rajapaksa family, was appointed on Friday as Sri Lanka's prime minister as President Ranil Wickremesinghe swore in his 18-member Cabinet in the hope of ending the political instability and the unprecedented economic crisis in the country.

Apart from Prime Minister Gunawardena, there are 17 other ministers in the Cabinet. Ali Sabry, who had earlier headed the country's finance ministry, was appointed as its foreign minister.

Prime minister Gunawardena has been given an additional portfolio of Public Administration Home Affairs, Provincial Councils and Local Government.

The rest of the ministers were retained with their same portfolios while President Wickremesinghe continues to hold the ministry of finance.

A demonstrator waves a Sri Lankan flag near a police barricade in Colombo | AFP

Meanwhile, the security forces demolished the main anti-government protest camp in the capital Friday, evicting activists in a pre-dawn assault that raised international concern. Troops and police Special Task Force commandos wielding batons and armed with automatic assault rifles charged on people blockading the sea-front Presidential Secretariat in Colombo.

Hundreds of soldiers removed demonstrators' barricades and tents outside the colonial-era building, while the last remaining protesters on the premises — some were still on the steps — were baton charged away.

By sunrise, police commandos and soldiers barricaded the complex and the main roads leading to the area were cordoned off.

Hundreds of activists demonstrated at a nearby designated protest site against the military action, demanding the new president resign and dissolve parliament to allow fresh elections.

"Don't attack peaceful protesters, instead listen to us," said student Dimmithu, 26.

The activists insisted they would continue their struggle, and Basantha Samarasinghe, 45, a businessman and trade union leader, said: "The peoples' wish is system change, and parliament should be dissolved. It has no public mandate." Opposition Leader Sajith Premadasa accused the government of using excessive force. Agencies

New PM is a hard-core leftist

COLOMBO

DINESH Gunawardena became Sri Lanka's prime minister by a quirk of fate at a time when the country is in unprecedented economic and political turmoil. A stalwart of Sri Lankan politics, Gunawardena was appointed as the Prime Minister on Friday, a day after Ranil Wickremesinghe was elevated to the post of Sri Lanka's President.

Gunawardena, 73, earlier served as the foreign minister and education minister. He was appointed as Home Minister in April by then President Gotabaya Rajapaksa. A schoolmate of President Wickremesinghe, Gunawardena, has held various Cabinet posts in the past.

Born in 1949, Gunawardena is the leader of the Trotskyist majority nationalist Mahajana Eksath Peramuna (MEP), a constituent party of the ruling Sri Lanka Podujana Peramuna party. Gunawardena belongs to a prominent political family in Sri Lanka. PTI

French border force short on hands, travellers faced with long delays

Vehicles queue at Dover Port for border checks on Friday | AFP

LONDON

OPERATORS of the English Channel port of Dover on Friday accused French border officials of "ruining the start to the summer getaway", blaming understaffing for hours-long queues.

Bosses at the port — a key gateway to mainland Europe — declared a "critical incident" and urged travellers taking advantage of schools breaking up this week to reconsider their journeys as ferry companies warned of waits of at least six hours.

"Woefully inadequate French border resource ruins start to the summer getaway," the port said in a statement.

"Despite the Port of Dover... preparing over several months for the busy summer period, we are deeply frustrated that the resource at the French border overnight and early this morning has been woefully inadequate."

Passengers need to go through border checks carried out by French officials in Dover before they can board a ferry to cross to northern France.

But the port said French staffing "has fallen far short of what is required to ensure a smooth first weekend of the peak summer getaway period".

Most English schools start the summer holiday this week, making it one of the busiest periods for cross-Channel trips.

French authorities said the increased holiday traffic had been anticipated and plans were in place for maximum staff levels on Friday morning.

However, they blamed an "unexpected technical incident" in the Channel Tunnel for delaying French personnel's arrival by more than an hour.

"Traffic flow at the port of Dover is the joint responsibility of various players, including in particular the shipping companies, the port of Dover and the British authorities," said Georges-Francois Leclerc, prefect of the country's northernmost Hauts-de-France region.

He added in a statement that French officials would "continue to work closely with all of them in order to manage the exceptional traffic expected" in the coming days. AFP

RIL misses street estimates by big margin

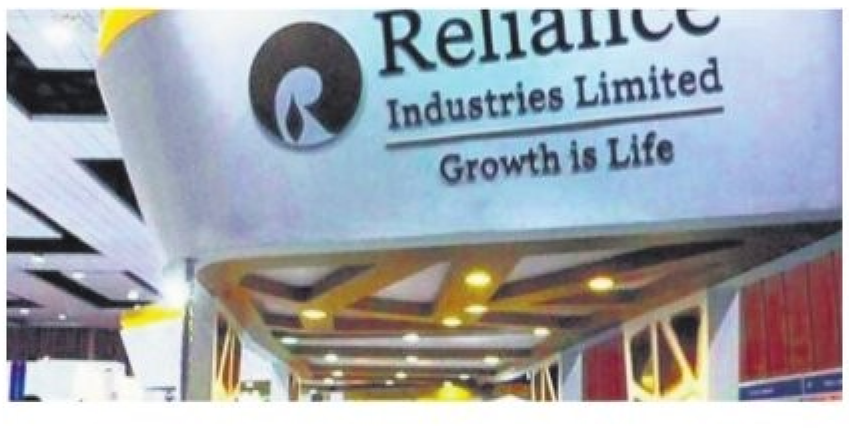
Analysts and brokerages were expecting Reliance Industries to report 2X jump in its net profit to about ₹25, 000 cr

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

Mukesh Ambani's Reliance Industries (RIL) reported a 46% year-on-year jump in net profit to ₹17,955 crore in the first quarter of financial year 2023 (Q1FY23). However, it missed street estimates by big margin.

Most analysts and brokerages were expecting Reliance Industries to report 2X jump in its net profit to about ₹25, 000 crore. In the April-June quarter of last fiscal, RIL had reported a net profit of ₹12,272 crore, while in the preceding quarter (Q4FY22) its profit stood at ₹16,203 crore. The profit after tax (PAT) for RIL in the March and June ended quarter was not only below analysts' expectations but also lower than net profit of ₹18,549 crore the company had reported in the December-ended quarter.

Analysts were expecting 2X jump in profit and about 65-70% jump in revenue on account of sharp rise in gross refining margins and its expansion of its retail business. The oil-to-telecom conglomerate reported a 54.5% year-on-year growth in consolidated revenue in the June quarter from operations to ₹2.23 lakh crore, against street's estimate of ₹2.4 lakh crore. RIL's bread and butter oil to chemical (O2C) segment saw its revenue for 1Q FY23 increased by 56.7% Y-o-Y to ₹161,715 crore, accounting for about 60% of its total gross value of sale and service. This segment's Ebidta came at ₹19,888 crore, half of RIL's total Ebidta of ₹39,562 crore.



"The EU embargo on Russian oil products, higher gas to oil switching, strong travel demand and lower product inventory levels resulted in tight fuel markets. Downstream chemical profitability was stable with strong PX, PTA and PET deltas offsetting weak polymer and downstream polyester deltas on Y-o-Y basis," RIL said. Reliance BP Mobility Limited profitability was adversely impacted on account of under recovery as retail fuel prices remained capped despite higher benchmark product prices, it said.

"Geopolitical conflict has caused significant dislocation in energy markets and disrupted traditional trade flows. Despite significant challenges posed by the tight crude markets and higher energy and freight costs, O2C business has delivered its best performance ever," said Mukesh Ambani, Chairman and MD, RIL.

JAPAN

INFLATION STAYS ABOVE BOJ'S TARGET

Japan's core consumer inflation remained above the central bank's 2% target for a third straight month in June, as the economy faced pressure from high global raw material prices that have pushed up cost of the country's imports. The rise in consumer prices challenges the Bank of Japan's view that recent price hikes in the world's third-largest economy will remain somewhat temporary, even as households worry about higher living costs. The core consumer price index (CPI), which excludes volatile fresh food costs but includes those of energy, rose 2.2% in June from a year earlier, government data showed. The data, which matched a median market forecast, meant inflation stayed above the BOJ's 2% target for a third consecutive month. It followed rises of 2.1% in May and April. Household budgets, among low-income earners, faced pressure from higher food prices that was likely to cool appetite for a post-pandemic spending splurge, said Takeshi Minami, chief economist at Norinchukin Research Institute.

CHINA

LARGEST POLICY BANK DISBURSED $27 BN LOANS

China's largest policy bank said on Friday (Jul 22) that it had disbursed 181.5 billion yuan (US$27 billion) in loans for urban development projects in the first half of the year, and pledged to maintain an accelerated pace of lending to fund infrastructure. The China Development Bank (CDB) has supplied 650 million yuan in loans to fund the renewal of an economic zone in the eastern city of Yantai, including the renovation of industrial facilities, it said. The CDB also separately gave loans of 280 million yuan and 98 million yuan for the construction of gas, electricity and water pipelines in the eastern city of Chuzhou and the capital of Beijing, respectively. The world's second-biggest economy slowed sharply in the second quarter, depressed by strict COVID-19 containment measures and a distressed property market. Policymakers have pledged to boost spending on infrastructure to revive the economy. Authorities in a cabinet meeting in June said that they had given policy banks 800 billion yuan in new credit quotas to fund infrastructure projects.

THAILAND

THAI CENTRAL BANK CHIEF SEES GRADUAL RATE HIKES

THAILAND will gradually raise interest rates to curb inflation and ensure no disruption to an uneven post-pandemic economic recovery, its central bank governor said on Friday, ruling out an off-cycle policy meeting for now. While the recovery is clearer and should be intact, it is still not broad-based, with the export sector performing better than pre-pandemic levels, while tourism remains low, although recovering faster than expected, governor Sethaput Suthiwartnarueput said. Raising rates would help anchor inflation expectations, he told a news conference, adding there was no need for a special rate meeting ahead of the scheduled Aug 10 policy meeting, as factors to watch remained within forecasts. The Bank of Thailand (BOT) is expected to raise its key rate from a low of 0.50% at the next meeting, which would be the first hike since late 2018. Inflation is expected to peak in the third quarter, averaging at 7.5 per cent, above the BOT's target range of 1-3 per cent, and the BOT will prevent it from rising steadily, he said.

5G AUCTION

MITTAL: AIRTEL AT THE FOREFRONT IN OFFERING SERVICE

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

BHARTI AIRTEL Chairman Sunil Mittal on Friday said Airtel will be at the forefront of bringing 5G connectivity to India.

In a statement in Airtel's annual report 2021-22, Mittal noted that Airtel took lead in 5G by testing the network ahead of the competition and became the first operator in India to demonstrate a 5G cloud gaming experience and conduct a successful 700 Mhz band trial for rural connectivity.

"A brilliant experience built over a 5G ready network played an integral part in delivering a robust performance… We can proudly say that Airtel will be at the forefront of bringing 5G connectivity to India with a powerful network that will support India's digital-first economy," said Mittal.

Mittal's comment assumes significance, as the 5G spectrum auction is slated to be held on July 26, 2022. The Department of Telecommunication (DoT) put on a total 72 GHz (gigahertz) of radiowaves worth at least ₹4.3 lakh crore on auction. Interestingly, this time, along with telecom operators Reliance Jio and Vodafone Idea, a new entrant, Gautam Adani's flagship Adani Enterprise, is also participating in the auction. Analysts believe the entry of Adani Group is going to make the auction fiercer.

Mittal, also highlighted how Airtel outperformed competitors in expanding revenue market share through incremental 4G net-adds. The company added 21.5 million subscribers in the year to cross the 200 million 4G smartphone customer threshold. On digitisation front, Mittal said Airtel must continue its role in India's digitisation journey. The telco raised $3.5 billion in equity to add its capacity. Operationally, Mital added that Airtel pressed the pedal harder to accelerate growth in each business segment – whether it is mobile services, non-mobile or digital.

"On the towers front, given the stabilising industry structure and emerging opportunities related to future 5G rollouts, we expanded our shareholding to ~47.95% in Indus Towers," added Mittal.

Vodafone Idea appoints new CEO

NewDelhi: Telecom operator Vodafone Idea (VIL) on Friday announced appointment of Akshaya Moondra as its next chief executive officer (CEO). The company, in a statement, said his tenure, for a period of three years, will begin from August 19. Moondra, who is currently VIL's chief financial officer, would be replacing Ravinder Takkar as the CEO. Ravinder Takkar was appointed on August 19, 2019, for a term of three years. His tenure will end on August 18. "Akshaya Moondra is well versed with the VIL business, and confident he will successfully steer the company," said Himanshu Kapania, Chairman, VIL. ENS

Re holding up well relative to other currencies: RBI

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

ALLAYING the fear of depreciation of rupee, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das on Friday said the Indian rupee is holding up well relative to both advanced and emerging market economies on account of strong, resilient and intact underlying fundamentals.

"The recovery is gradually strengthening. The current account deficit is modest. Inflation is stabilising. The financial sector is well-capitalised and sound. The external debt-o-GDP ratio is declining. The foreign exchange reserves are adequate," Das said at Bank of Baroda Economics Conference. He highlighted the global grim situation in view of inflationary pressures, tighter external funding situation and financial stability challenges in many countries.

Meanwhile, the Governor recognised the fact that there was a genuine shortfall of supply of forex in the market relative to demand because of import and debt servicing requirements and portfolio outflows. He said the apex bank has been supplying US dollars to the market to ensure that there is adequate forex liquidity. In addition, Das stated that the considerable part of the outstanding external commercial borrowing(ECB) is hedged. For India, as per RBI's internal research estimates, the optimal hedging ratio is at 63%. "Taking into account natural hedges and the exposure of public sector companies, the optimal hedge ratio condition is comfortably satisfied in the case of the stock of ECBs in India's external debt," he added. Following RBI's actions, the movements of rupee have been relatively smooth and orderly, as per Das. "We will continue to engage with the forex market and ensure that the rupee finds its level in line with its fundamentals. I would like to reiterate that we have no particular level of the rupee in mind. "… but we would like to ensure its orderly evolution and we have zero tolerance for volatile and bumpy movements," Das stated.

PLI for white goods only initial push: Piyush Goyal

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for white goods is meant to encourage the industry to take the first few steps to compete in the global market and give it the initial push to bring scale to the businesses, said Minister for Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Public Distribution and Textiles Piyush Goyal.

Speaking at the DPIIT-FICCI Investor Roundtable, he said the LED revolution, in fact, was brought about by removing the subsidy and in the long-run, no country has succeeded in becoming a prosperous nation on the back of government support. "In the LED programme in 2015, my first decision on file was to remove the subsidy on the bulb given by EESL," said Goyal. "Because the budget was only 9 crore so everybody kept waiting for the subsidy and we could not go beyond six-hundred thousand bulbs in a year. After removal of the subsidy, we could encourage industry to start expanding the sale of the LED bulbs," the minister said. Goyal also added that 61 companies had set up components manufacturing plants pan India at 111 locations across 14 states/UT and were generating employment.

Akasa to start flying from Aug 7, ticket bookings open for certain routes

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

A month after receiving its air operator certificate (AOC), Akasa Air, India's newest airline, is launching its maiden commercial flight on August 7. Akasa on Friday opened ticket bookings with initial networks in Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Mumbai, and Kochi.

The airline will launch its operations by offering 28 weekly flights between Mumbai and Ahmedabad starting August 7, 2022. Following this, starting August 13, it will start operating an additional 28 weekly flights between Bengaluru and Kochi. All flights are open for sale with immediate effect.

The airline said it has future plans to have a pan India presence, especially in the tier-2 and tier-3 centres. Praveen Iyer, co-founder and Chief Commercial Officer, Akasa Air said, "Akasa Air's network strategy is focused on establishing a strong pan-India presence and providing linkages from metro to tier 2 and tier 3 cities across the country. We will adopt a phased approach to support our network expansion plans, progressively connecting more cities, as we add two aircraft to our fleet each month, in our first year". Akasa has two Boeing 737 MAX 8 aircraft in its fleet and will be adding two of these planes every month till March 2023. The billionaire investor Rakesh Jhunjhunwala-backed airline in November last year inked a deal with Boeing to purchase 72 Max aircraft.

Now that Akasa has entered the civil aviation space, it will have to face fierce competition from market leader IndiGo whose market share in the domestic market rose to 56.9% in June, as per DGCA data.

"IndiGo has a reputation of killing competition by offering tickets at lower prices in sectors where other airlines see an opportunity. It will be very interesting to see how Akasa, which is full of aviation veterans, carves a niche for itself and remains profitable," an industry analyst said, requesting anonymity.

SC paves way for taxpayers to claim pre-GST input credits

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

IN a big relief to thousands of taxpayers who could not avail accumulated pre-GST input tax credits (ITC) due to non-filing or wrong filing of claims earlier, the Supreme Court on Friday ordered the government to provide such taxpayers a window to apply for such claims.

The Supreme Court has asked the government to allow these taxpayers to apply for pre-GST ITC claims on the GSTN portal from September 1 to Oct 31, 2022. GST Network (GSTN) is a platform to help taxpayers to prepare, file returns, make payments of GST. The move is believed to give relief to taxpayers who could not avail ITC by the earlier deadline of Dec 27, 2017. As per industry and government sources, over ₹500 crore of ITC would be available to taxpayers after the SC verdict. "At a time when businesses were grappling with implementation of a new tax regime, to deny the ITC benefit of tax credit of the erstwhile tax regime due to technical glitches and/or procedural infirmity by the department was not a right approach," says Anita Rastogi, partner, PwC.

Start-ups focus on profitability in H1

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

AFTER a massive uptick in funding in 2021; this year start-ups have witnessed moderation in valuations and fall in money inflows, therefore, their focus has shifted to drive in profitability and optimise costs in the first half.

According to Grant Thornton Bharat, overseas listings, especially US SPACs, as well as Indian IPOs, have witnessed a slowdown in 2022, driven by the slowdown in global and Indian capital market fundraising trends.

In the first half of 2022, start-ups attracted private equity/venture capitalist deals of $5.1 billion, and also witnessed funding across segments- fintech, healthtech and consumer-tech, the report said.

"Investors will continue to look at the emerging areas of opportunities covering fintech, consumer tech and e-commerce, healthtech and edtech. We will also see more focus on cost efficiency strategies by the start-ups and potential consolidation and M&A opportunities in the second half of 2022," said Raja Lahiri, Partner and Technology Sector Leader, Grant Thornton Bharat.

India Inc signed 1,149 deals valuing $104.3 billion in the first half.

High jumper Tejaswin to compete in CWG

Indian high jumper Tejaswin Shankar was on Friday cleared to compete at the upcoming Commonwealth Games after the organisers accepted his entry on the request of Indian Olympic Association, ending a month-long drama surrounding his participation. Quarter-miler MV Jilna was also re-included in the squad.

EXPRESS PLAINER

Understanding the Elo system that's used to rate chess players

A few days ago, D Gukesh, part of the Indian team for the Olympiad, breached the Elo rating of 2700. Here's a brief explainer on how Elo came to being, why it's important and how some of us could have been rated according to this method because of its widespread use elsewhere.

WHAT'S THE ELO RATING METHOD?

It's named after a Hungarian physician, Arpad Elo, who migrated to the US before the start of the first World War. Complex set of formulae is used to arrive at the Elo ratings of players. It was first adopted by the US Chess Federation in 1960 before FIDE (World Chess Federation) adopted it too. Most chess federations use the Elo method or a variation to rank players.

HOW DID GUKESH RAISE HIS RATING TO 2700?

Gukesh beat fellow GM, Liem Le Quang, a higher rated player at the Biel Chess Festival in Switzerland. However, the very nature of Elo is it's very dynamic and it keeps changing on a per match basis. That's why Gukesh's live rating now stands at 2693.7.

WHAT ARE THE BASIC PRINCIPLES?

To put it in very simplistic terms, if a lower-ranked player were to beat a higher-ranked player, then the former's points would have a substantial jump as the odds of that happening are less when compared to the higher-ranked player beating a lower-ranked player.

EXPLAIN WITH AN EXAMPLE

An example: Player A, with an Elo rating of 2400, faces player B, Elo rating of 2000. If the former beats the latter, it's insignificant so there will only be miniscule increase in Player A's rating. However if the opposite were to happen, Player B's rating would see a big jump. So if Player A were to win, their rating would increase to 2400, with Player B's rating dropping to 1997. But if Player B were to win, their rating would increase to 2029, with Player A's dropping to 2371. Mathematical formulae are used to arrive at these figures.

WHY IS THIS CONSIDERED THE GOLD STANDARD FOR RATING PROFESSIONAL CHESS PLAYERS?

Not just chess but in some zero-sum games (a principle in game theory where a player's winnings is directly balanced out by the losses of their opponent) Elo rating is considered as the gold standard. There is a belief that adopting such a system will mean players, over the long run, will always be rated according to their true level. Citing the above example, it's unlikely that Player A will keep losing to Player B. Also equally unlikely that Player B will keep beating Player A.

WHERE ELSE IS ELO RATING USED?

Video games like Age of Empires relied the rating to mark players' scores. Then Tinder, the dating app, used to rate people by their 'attractiveness'. When more people swiped right, the rating would go up. In 2019, the company revealed that they don't do it now. "A few years ago, the idea of an "Elo score" was a hot topic among members and media alike. And sometimes, it still is. Here's the scoop: Elo is old news at Tinder. It's an outdated measure and our cutting-edge technology no longer relies on it."

The Olympic gold medallist recorded 88.39m in his first throw to qualify

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

CONSISTENCY is a word that usually defines the best from the rest. No matter what the stage — the Olympics or the world championships — these super humans never falter. On a day when Shericka Jackson became the fastest woman alive with a meet record of 21.45s and the indomitable Shelly-Ann Fraser-Pryce added a silver to her innumerable medals, Neeraj Chopra was plying his trade quietly. Ever since he made a comeback from injury a couple of years ago, with a new coach (Klaus Bartonietz), Neeraj has been improving his mark remarkably. Whatever the stage, whatever the occasion.

On Thursday (early Friday in India) at the World Championships in Eugene, the Tokyo 2020 javelin champion needed just one throw to overhaul the qualification mark with a throw of 88.39m. The automatic qualification mark was set at 83.50m or top 12 best performers. There was no need for a second attempt. It had been the story of the season's consistency.

To put this into context, his best throw before this was 88.07m in the 2021 Indian Grand Prix and 88.06 in 2018 Asian Games before injury. In short, ever since he made a comeback after injury in 2020 he has been improving.

This season, though a wee bit delayed due to various reasons, including the postponed Asian Games and a trifle in starting to train last year, he has been phenomenal. Only Grenada's Anderson Peters could throw (89.91m) more than him on Friday in Group B in his first attempt. Czech Yakub Valdejch, who is the other thrower to have crossed 90m this season, too qualified with 85.23m in his first attempt.

India's javelin thrower Neeraj Chopra qualifies for his maiden World Championships final in Eugene on Friday | AP

Chopra's other challengers would be Julian Weber, who, too, had been consistent this year but has not produced anything that's beyond Neeraj's best of 89.94m at Stockholm Diamond League.

Oliver Halendar of Finland had his best at 89.83m. Going by the record, a medal is almost certain but what colour will be determined on Saturday evening in Eugene and early morning here in India. With everyone starting from scratch, Saturday (early Sunday in India) will be another day. But a day, like he and his coach feel, time to enjoy.

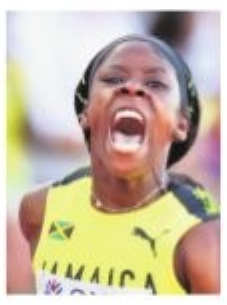
For India, the day was defined by other athletes too. For the first time two javelin throwers qualified when Rohit Yadav with his effort of 80.42 qualified at 11th place for the final.

In triple jump, for the first time Eldhose Paul entered the summit round with a jump of 16.68m as one of top 12 performers. Rohit, too, had been quite consistent this year with 80+ throws and a best effort of 83.54m at inter-state senior nationals in Chennai last month. While Paul's best this season had been 16.99m.

Shericka clocks second fastest time in history

AP @Eugene, Oregon

JAMAICA'S Shericka Jackson can finally go watch the replay. The one of the race where she gave away her chance to be an Olympic champion. She's now a world champion, a more-than-satisfying reward after a year in which she trained with the goal of never making the same mistake again. She executed the curve perfectly and ran the 200 meters in the second-fastest time ever, 21.45 seconds, to lead a Jamaican 1-2 finish on Thursday night at the world championships. She beat 100-meter champion Shelly-Ann Fraser-Pryce to the finish line by 0.36.



Lyles leads US sweep

Noah Lyles crouched down, put his hands on his knees and glared at the clock. Not seeing what he'd hoped for, he waved his hand dismissively and walked back onto the track to celebrate what was still a long-awaited win in the 200 meters at the worlds. The clock that, for a moment, read "19.32," would adjust down a tick to "19.31." That meant he broke Michael Johnson's hallowed, 26-year-old American record. Then, a few seconds later, the scoreboard that, at first, only had Lyles' name on it, popped up with the names of the two finishers behind him: Kenny Bednarek and Erriyon Knighton of the U.S.

Supermom Sneha dreams to make India comeback

GOMESH S @Chennai

IN the first week of June 2021, Sneha Deepthi shared a video on her Instagram: clips of her playing for Railways and smacking around the Odisha bowlers in the 2019 Inter-state U-23 T20 tournament. The caption read, 'Can't wait to be back on the field..!! I miss the real ME.'

It had been over two years since Sneha, once India's youngest T20I debutante, had last played a competitive game. In the intervening period, she got married and also gave birth to her daughter, Kriva Philip. Her desire to return to the field had grown stronger than ever.

A year since that nostalgic post that fuelled her cricketing fire, Sneha has made a successful return to the domestic circuit, captaining Andhra in List-A and T20 cricket, and then leading Vizianagaram Royals to the title in the inaugural Andhra Premier League earlier this month. And now, she wants to become the first cricketer to make India comeback after having a baby.

While that day in June 2021 appears significant to the outside world, Sneha's 'return to play' programme was put in place almost as soon as she and her husband Philip Maddirala found out about their pregnancy. "When I got to know that I was pregnant, he (her husband) was like, 'you should come back," Sneha told this daily. "This one year is your vacation kind of time. Once the baby comes off, within two months, you should start your routines,' he said. Everybody got mad; even I got mad," she laughs.

However, it did not take long for her to understand that her husband was right.

'I HAVE NO REGRETS AT ALL'

Currently working on two web series, legendary actor Zeenat Aman, who ruled the silver screen in the '70s and '80s, reminisces about her chance entry into Bollywood which she eventually went on to conquer

VIDYA IYENGAR

WHEN she was shooting for Shalimar (1978) in Bengaluru, yesteryear actor Zeenat Aman recalls poring over the script day and night. It was her first experience shooting with an international crew, and in two languages – English and Hindi. "The foreign crew expected us to get the lines straight at one go. It was so funny...soon after our day's shoot, I'd be learning my lines for the next day with my Hindi tutor, while Dharam*ji* would be practising his, with his English tutor," says Zeenat, who played the role of Sheila Enders, Sir John Locksley's (Rex Harrison) nurse in the Shammi Kapoor starrer.

More than 40 years on, this film, the making of it and other timeless tales kept the housefull audience at the Taj West End in rapt attention on Thursday. Organised by FICCI Flo Bangalore, Zeenat was in conversation with Dekyi Yangtso Chawla and Jayshree Menon at 'Yaadon ki Baraat'.

A cosmopolitan girl with a foreign education, Zeenat's entry into films was quite by chance. She – along with her mother and German step-father – was ready to leave the country when Dev Anand suggested she audition for a part in Hare Rama Hare Krishna, which ultimately turned out to be her big break. "Dev saheb was impressed with my attitude and persona – wearing a skirt and smoking a pipe – and he thought I would fit the role. For the next 15 years, it was a domino effect. I don't know where and how the years went by," says the actor whose other films include Laawaris, Qurbani, among a host of others.

Zeenat faced several challenges, including not being fluent in Hindi, even though her father was a prolific writer and screenwriter for films like Mughal-e-Azam and Pakeezah. "I gave my first screen test in English. My father would have rolled over in his grave, knowing I did so. I don't think he would have ever liked my becoming an actor," she says.

Always being ahead of her time, Zeenat looks back at the '70s and '80s, when she ruled the silver screen for two decades. "The actors were prolific, the music was integral. For instance, Dum Maro Dum is now considered the song of the century. In fact, Dev saheb wasn't even keen to keep the song, but was persuaded to do so," says the out-and-out director's actor.

Having established herself in a westernised garb, Zeenat started eyeing a key role in Satyam Shivam Sundaram (1978). "I knew Raj Kapoor was directing this film, and made every effort to get the role. After much homework, I went to meet him one day. I asked the person to say that 'Rupa' [the character he was looking to cast] had come to meet him. He was so impressed with how passionate I was about work," she recalls.

Zeenat doesn't have any regrets about giving up her high-flying career for motherhood, nor her troubled marriage. "Sometimes the wrong person appears at the right time. But, I have two beautiful sons, and so, I have no regrets at all," she says. Is there anything she would have done differently? "Absolutely not," says Zeenat, who lives by the funda of doing the best she can at any given point, just like she did when she once walked onto a set, assuming it to be glamorous, and was then told, 'You have to be the glamour.'

FUN FACT

If there's one director Zeenat Aman would like to work with, who would it be? Without batting an eyelid, she replies: Sanjay Leela Bhansali.

A 'BITTER' TALE

AS the pandemic continues to play its part in influencing an individual's needs and choices, avid drinkers are looking for a poised balance in their consumption. Consumers prefer drinks that can be replicated at home with basic, easily available ingredients and that don't pinch the pocket.

With new pubs and microbreweries sprouting like mushrooms in damp, hot spaces, stiff competition has called in for new aces. How does the restaurant balance the consumer's mindset to make it pocket-friendly and also cut down on cost while gaining more footfall to generate volume and business? The trick lies in small changes. Every bar ensures cutting their cost in making the final product by developing homegrown ingredients, making homemade liqueurs and bitters to add finesse to their beverages.

Every bar chef curates and specialises in developing their bitters, liqueurs, shrubs, etc. Why a bar chef? They are equally crafty at their bar and as sous chefs in the kitchen and work closely on curating cocktail programmes and alternatives to foreign ingredients by working on ingredients available close near home. They also help in slicing more profit to the business by reducing cost and not compromising on quality.

If you want to have a good Negroni, you have to replace Campari by making your homemade orange aperitif. It may sound like a minimalistic idea, but the small change makes it more innovative. Are you a coffeeholic? Want coffee flavour in your alcohol too? But find Kahlua expensive? How about we teach you one quick alternative? Replace your Kahlua with homemade coffee liqueur. A rich simple creamy drink is easily made without losing its charm.

The recent trend in the bar space is homemade spice bitter, paan bitter, tea bitters, etc. I generally like barley tea bitter with a hint of spiciness.

Here is a small trick from the bar book to make liqueurs and bitters. Use neutral alcohol high proof, add sugar and other ingredients, slowly it will taste better than any commercial product in the market which uses heavy stabiliser to regulate the taste.

We make homemade Campari by using orange peel, lemon peel, orris root, wormwood, oleo saccharum, Indian spices and homemade red colour by adding neutral spirit and after four weeks you have exquisite homemade Campari.

The most used method of making homemade coffee liqueur is by using roughly grounded coffee beans, orange peel, cinnamon, simple syrup and gold rum, or vodka. In less than two weeks natural homemade coffee liqueur is in your bar.

So next time you have a guest at home, twist up some elegant bitters, and homemade liqueurs and let your guest be awed.

KGF Chapter 2 completes 100 days; makers say, 'This is just the beginning'

The Yash-starrer that released in multiple languages grossed over ₹1,000 crore and broke several box office records

NEW LINE CINEMA STARTS WORKING ON MORTAL KOMBAT SEQUEL

CE FEATURES

NEW Line Cinema is gearing up to make a sequel to its 2021 sleeper hit Mortal Kombat. The action-adventure film is based on the widely successful video game franchise. Simon McQuoid, who directed the first film, is returning for the sequel.

Mortal Kombat was one of the earliest films to release right after the peak of the pandemic, it went on to stay on top of the box office. Video-game-to-film adaptations have a long history of disappointing the fans but Mortal Kombat subverted all expectations to have a stellar theatrical run.

Mortal Kombat is a fantasy-based martial artist game that started as an arcade game and went on to expand into several mediums from films to comic books to merchandise. Previous live-action adaptations of the game, including Paul W S Anderson's 1995 film of the same name, had failed to meet expectations. Now that the 2021 film has done well, owing to its stunt choreography, appropriate amounts of fanservice, and tasteful use of gore and violence, New Line Cinema is going ahead with a sequel. Even though most of the characters were killed off in the first film, characters portrayed by Lewis Tan, Hiroyuki Sanada, Ludy Lin, Tadanobu Asano, Mehcad Brooks, and Jessica McNamee are set to return for the sequel.

NOT TOO BLACK A COMEDY

NODI SWAMI IVANU IRODE HEEGE

Cast: Rishi, Dhanya Balakrishnan, Nagabhushana, Aproova Bharadwaj, and Greeshma Sridhar

Director: Islauddin

Streaming on: Zee5

RATING 2.5/5

A SHARADHAA

SUPPOSEDLY a dark comedy, the makers of Nodi Swami Ivanu Irodu Heege (NSIIH) hoped the film would bring awe and admiration to them. However, it isn't easy to ace a dark comedy, and NSIIH is miles away from hitting the target.

The film opens with a conversation between Vinutha (Apoorva Bharadwaj) and Sai Kumar (Rishi) where the former explains her commitment issues. Five years later, Sai is still heartbroken and is not able to come to terms with Vinutha moving away from his life. Experiencing heart-wrenching thoughts, he starts getting suicidal tendencies and goes through many ways to take his own life. Will he find peace in death, or will something fundamentally change in the life of Sai? We see the sensitive subject of mental health being dealt with a decent dose of humour.

Although it is a sincere attempt by debutant director Islahuddin that mirrors the mental status of people dealing with heartbreaks and suffering from clinical depression, the approach is a bit casual in execution. With limited characters, the film comes across more like a stage play. While the case study of a person's mental condition becomes the plot point, the attempts at humour don't really evoke enough laughter.

In fact, it is only in the last act that the audience is able to slowly connect to the character of Sai, and the people around him, but it is a classic case of too little too late. NSIIH is Rishi's show throughout, and the actor has once again tried to step out of his comfort zone with a unique subject. In this film, he has managed to capture the mood of a person with mental health issues, however, we don't really feel too empathetic with Sai Kumar. Dhanya Balakrishnan, Greeshma Sridhar, and Naga-Bhushana provide the right support to the film.

Unfortunately, NSIIH, a film that highlights the issue of depression with limited doses of humour, is neither relatable nor is it funny. If you are really looking for a film that can act as a sympathetic shoulder for people with heartbreaks, we would suggest watching Dr. Rajkumar's Eradu Kanasu instead.

A GALLOPING PERIOD MESS

SHAMSHERA

Cast: Ranbir Kapoor, Sanjay Dutt, Vaani Kapoor, Ronit Roy, Saurabh Shukla

Director: Karan Malhotra

RATING 2/5

SHILAJIT MITRA

IN Shamshera, there is a fleeting instance where we see the film's three lead characters in the same scene. There's Shuddh Singh, an autocratic officer of the British Raj; there's Balli, a footloose thief-turned-revolutionary; and there's Shamshera, Balli's dacoit father who died years ago but keeps reappearing in his visions. The last two characters, as we know, are played by Ranbir Kapoor, while Shuddh Singh is played by Sanjay Dutt, whom Ranbir had portrayed in the biopic Sanju (2018). Meta enough, sure, but get this: Shuddh Singh is evil, Balli is moderate while Shamshera is calmly conscientious. It's like watching Freud's Id, Ego and Superego battle it out in the same scene.

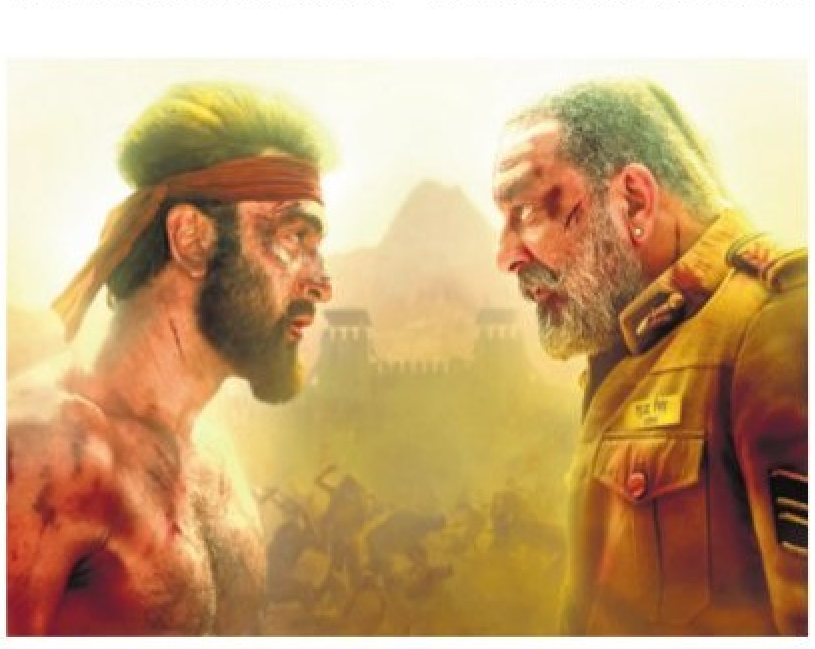
Incidental meta-pleasures are also an indication that a film has failed to hook the viewer at a basic level. Shamshera, directed by Karan Malhotra, is a galloping epic. The film has horses and dacoits and mountains and valleys and forests and lakes. Its sheer sweep acquits Yash Raj Films of the clumsy productions of Samrat Prithviraj and Jayeshbhai Jordaar. Yet scale—immense, spectacular scale—is no replacement for storytelling. The plot of Shamshera is achingly conventional. In the age of the balls-out period blockbuster, it's missing a few Rs.

In 1871, Shamshera, a dacoit leader, is captured by Shuddh Singh and forced to surrender. His tribesmen, who go by 'Khameran', were offered land and amnesty by the British crown; Instead, they are imprisoned and tortured in the walled city of Kaza. Shamshera attempts an escape, but fails. He's stoned to death by his own people, who allege cowardice. The sequence will remind you of Agneepath (2012), Karan's debut film, another father-son story that kicks off with a dramatic public execution in the night effected by Sanjay Dutt.

Raised in captivity, Balli grows up detesting the Khameran. He wants to become an officer like Shuddh Singh, who's now older and meaner. But then destiny calls, and Balli—like all Ranbir Kapoor characters—sets off on his journey. It's here that Shamshera loses all its marbles and much of its plot. Take the business with Balli teaming with other Khameran and looting the rich. Or the business with a dancer named Sona (Vaani Kapoor) helping them along the way. None of these characters register as complex, individual beings. They don't have to, but then Shamshera wants to draw emotion from the gang's eventual fate. This becomes difficult when we hardly know them as people. Worse films have employed Saurabh Shukla as comic relief, but boy is he wasted in this one.

Ranbir has described Shamshera as a much-needed turnaround in his filmography. Yet what, exactly, has changed? Balli, like many of the actor's previous characters, is a young lad who goes on a journey. He often sits, broods and ponders intensely, considering his purpose in life. The Shamshera character is more imposing and narratively fascinating, though it's hardly much. It's all the more underwhelming since much of the scenery is chewed up by Sanjay alone. The seasoned actor goes overboard with Shuddh Singh. He cackles at every minute but convinces at none.

There are visuals that stand out: water cascading from gigantic vats at Kaza prison; a mysterious, serpentine stepwell; Balli riding into a raging sandstorm and, logically enough, losing his horse. When Balli first encounters his father's comrades, they've gone into hiding, working as priests, opium dealers, and manual scavengers—a suggestion of free tribespeople assimilating themselves in a rigid caste hierarchy, a different kind of jail. Shamshera has a few good ideas, but the uninspired, overlong screenplay is a mess.



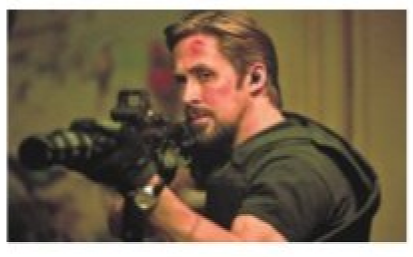
A JOYLESS REHASH OF UNDERCOVER ACTIONERS

THE GRAY MAN

Cast: Ryan Gosling, Chris Evans, Dhanush, Ana de Armas, Jessica Henwick

Director: Anthony Russo, Joe Russo

Streaming on: Netflix



RATING 2/5

GOPINATH RAJENDRAN

APPARENTLY, when all the colours of paint are mixed, what we get is black, but interestingly, when all colours of light are mixed, the residual ray is white. While I'm not sure what has to be mixed to get grey, a look at Netflix's latest big-budget spy-action film will tell that mixing all the tropes from hits films of that genre would give The Gray Man. The names attached to it, the ones that appear on the screen and those behind it, are some of the best in the industry and yet, what's supposed to be the OTT giant's calling card for this year, ends up being another mighty blow.

Following the routine good spy-bad spy idea that we have seen in many films including classics like the James Bond series, The Gray Man follows the story of Sierra Six (Gosling) who uncovers dark secrets within the CIA and becomes a primary target for his psychopathic former colleague Lloyd Hansen (Evans). With a screenplay by Christopher Markus and Stephen McFeely - the highest grossing screenwriters in terms of worldwide box office and the shots are called by Russo Brothers - arguably the most successful director duo right now. In front of the camera, it sports some of the most bankable names of world cinema - Ryan Gosling, Chris Evans, Ana de Armas and of course, our very own Dhanush. No wonder it feels, at least on paper, a sure-shot triumph. But what plagues The Gray Man, which will go down as a film with some of the best action sequences of this year, is the fact that it offers nothing more than just that.

Keeping in tradition with all the other big-budget action films from the house of Netflix, this too is a globe-trotting actioner that's supposed to enthral the audience with its grand visuals and grander reveals. We are notified that the film travels through different terrains of London, Bangkok, Prague and more cities, but they don't add any value to the plot, except for bringing up the logical question of how some of the most-wanted people get to travel between so many international borders that will put travel bloggers' wanderlust hashtags to shame. Unfortunately, such logical loopholes are the least of this film's worries that suffer heavily from the been-there-seen-that disorder. The film never gets deep into the nitty-gritty of the conflict and distances viewers by just sticking to conspicuous happenings. This results in us never getting invested in already scarce emotions that redefine relationships or the lives lost in the process of saving some. Even the climax feels like a rehash of Skyfall, or for those who follow the works of Dhanush, his Jagame Thandhiram which also incidentally had a Netflix release.

Action is the backbone of The Gray Man and there are a bunch of well-choreographed set pieces that are sure to quench the thirst of the fans of the genre. The one sequence in Prague involving multiple teams of men trying to get their hands on Sierra Six is where this film peaks. Unfortunately, the action scenes are cut at a palpitatingly fast rate and we never truly get to enjoy the combat sequences. Evans scores in what can be called the funniest yet evilest role he has played to date and sells the role of a mad man who wouldn't stop his mission irrespective of the collateral damages.

What came as a pleasant surprise was the characterisation of Dhanush who goes by the code word Lone Wolf. The Kollywood star, apart from two brilliant action blocks, also gets his own character arc. Based on how The Gray Man is meant to be the start of a franchise, we hope to see more of him who is dearly called by Hansen as 'My sexy Tamil friend'. The film, in a remarkable way, lends itself to some humorous scenes and Evans pulls it off in a similar fashion to what he did in his days as Captain America. Gosling, on the other hand, plays a gum-chewing one-dimensional character that feels more like a cardboard cut-out of every action hero out there and looks like a GTA character out on a mission to... completing missions.

On the whole, The Gray Man feels like an expensive mistake by Netflix which has just lost almost a million subscribers in the second quarter of this year. It leaves you wishing that the platform concentrates more on smaller, relatable and most importantly, entertaining content than the big-budgeted, bigger names backed projects like Space Force and Jupiter's Legacy which didn't leave us wanting for more. The Gray Man had everything to be this year's blockbuster, but a wafer-thin plot and rehashing some landmark films make it a mediocre watch.
